Spotted Horses:

International Encyclopedia of Horse Breeds Bonnie L. Hendricks, 2007 A standard reference on horse breeds illustrated and updated Celebrating the animal that has been a stalwart servant to humankind for countless generations Bonnie Hendricks's International Encyclopedia of Horse Breeds is the most thorough compilation of horse breeds ever attempted. The nearly four hundred entries arranged alphabetically include foundation breeds now extinct as well as extant breeds from across the globe. Each entry details the breed's origin and background size appearance chief use and status rare versus common. A list of breed associations and government departments that supplied data and photographs for the encyclopedia has been fully updated for this edition. With its breadth and depth of coverage as well as 530 black and white and 32 color illustrations the encyclopedia continues to be a standard international reference.

The Art of Brevity Per Winther, Jakob Lothe, Hans H. Skei, 2004 The Art of Brevity gathers fresh ideas about the theory and writing of short fiction from around the globe to produce an international inclusive exploration of the steadily growing field of short story studies. Though Anglo American scholars have served as the primary developers of contemporary short story theory since the field's inception in the 1960s this volume adds the contributions of scholars living in other parts of the world. Such Anglo American pioneers as Mary Rohrberger, Charles May, Susan Lohafer, and John Gerlach join with short fiction scholars at universities in Norway, Denmark, Sweden, and Canada to build academic bridges and expand the field geographically as well as conceptually. Contributors to the volume weave together themes of time, space, compression, mystery, reader response, and narrative closure. They discuss writers as varied as Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, Sarah Orne Jewett, James Joyce, Franz Kafka, Ernest Hemingway, Mavis Gallant, Flannery O'Connor, Eudora Welty, Margaret Atwood, Alice Munro, and Robert Olen Butler, the nineteenth century queer short story and contemporary Danish short shorts.

Horse Breeds and Human Society Kristen Guest, Monica Mattfeld, 2019-11-26 This book demonstrates how horse breeding is entwined with human societies and identities. It explores issues of lineage, purity, and status by exploring interconnections between animals and humans. The quest for purity in equine breed reflects and evolves alongside human subjectivity shaped by categories of race, gender, class, region, and nation. Focusing on various horse breeds from the Chincoteague Pony to Brazilian Crioulo and the Arabian horse, each chapter in this collection considers how human and animal identities are shaped by practices of breeding and categorizing domesticated animals. Bringing together different historical, geographical, and disciplinary perspectives, this book will appeal to academics as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of human-animal studies, sociology, environmental studies, cultural studies, history, and literature.
