BOOK JACKET On the Cusp of Contact Jean Barman, 2020-03-28 The ways in which we can redress the past are many and varied writes Jean Barman and it is up to each of us to act as best we can The seventeen essays collected here originally published between 1996 and 2013 make a valuable contribution toward this laudable goal With a wide range of source material from archival and documentary sources to oral histories Barman pieces together stories of individuals and groups disadvantaged in white settler society because of their gender race and or social class Working to recognize past actors that have been underrepresented in mainstream histories Barman's focus is BC on the cusp of contact The essays in this collection include fascinating though largely forgotten life stories of the frontier that space between contact and settlement where for a brief moment anything seemed possible This volume featuring over thirty archival photographs and illustrations makes these important and very readable essays accessible to a broader audience for the first time
