Using a variety of critical approaches the contributors map the fluctuating borders in specific literary texts and explore how these moving boundaries reflect on their practice of literary analysis. Inspired by the ideas of European and American thinkers including Giorgio Agamben Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Jean Fran ois Lyotard they consider three major areas of current concern the construction of identity the conceptualisation of literary genres and the demarcation of geographical and cultural domains. Applying their insights to a wide ranging corpus of francophone texts this volume analyses the work both of canonical figures such as Mallarm Proust and Zola and of lesser known writers such as Aim C saire Assia Djebar and St John Perse Yale French Studies ,1984 The Reader's Adviser Winifred F. A generous introduction to one of the key literary figures to emerge from Brazil in the second half of the twentieth century this book offers English speaking readers an ample selection of this prodigious writer's celebrated poetry and widely influential critical work. As a poet and as a cofounder of the renowned group Noigandres Haroldo de Campos has made a unique and substantial contribution to the theory and practice of experimental writing particularly the form known as concrete poetry and to the Latin American avant garde as a whole. These contributions acclaimed worldwide by figures such as Umberto Eco Jacques Derrida Octavio Paz and Guillermo Cabrera Infante can be observed unfolding here first in poetry selections ranging from de Campos early work before concretism through his most recent production then in theoretical texts that trace his evolution as a critic from an early interest in baroque and modernist writers to his development of an innovative model for reading translating and writing. This second critical section of the book includes de Campos encounters with the tasks of translating and reading some of the most important texts of Eastern and Western culture from Ecclesiastes to the No play Hagoromo from Dante to Paz thus charting a genealogy of modern literature. Together these poems and critical writings afford English speaking readers their first sustained exposure to a unique personality within the international avant garde a writer described by Brazilian poet Jo o Cabral de Melo Neto as that wonderful thing a poet and a translator who came to literature armed with an enviable knowledge of the literary phenomenon.
