Good Entertainment Byung-Chul Han, 2019-10-08 A philosopher considers entertainment in all its totalizing variety infotainment edutainment servotainment and traces the notion through Kant Zen Buddhism Heidegger Kafka and Rauschenberg In Good Entertainment Byung Chul Han examines the notion of entertainment its contemporary ubiquity and its philosophical genealogy Entertainment today in all its totalizing variety has an apparently infinite capacity for incorporation infotainment edutainment servotainment confrontainment Entertainment is held up as a new paradigm even a new credo for being and yet in the West it has had inescapably negative connotations Han traces Western ideas of entertainment considering among other things the scandal that arose from the first performance of Bach's Saint Matthew's Passion deemed too beautiful not serious enough Kant's idea of morality as duty and the entertainment value of moralistic literature Heidegger's idea of the thinker as a man of pain Kafka's hunger artist and the art of negativity which takes pleasure in annihilation and Robert Rauschenberg's refusal of the transcendent The history of the West Han tells us is a passion narrative and passion appears as a killjoy Achievement is the new formula for passion and play is subordinated to production gamified And yet he argues at their core passion and entertainment are not entirely different The pure meaninglessness of entertainment is adjacent to the pure meaning of passion The fool's smile resembles the pain racked visage of Homo doloris In Good Entertainment Han explores this paradox
