Rachel Lyman FIELD,1962    The Field House Robin Clifford Wood,2021-05-04 Born of illustrious New England stock Rachel Field was a National Book Award winning novelist a Newbery Medal winning children s writer a poet playwright and rising Hollywood success in the early twentieth century Her light was abruptly extinguished at the age of forty seven when she died at the pinnacle of her personal happiness and professional acclaim Fifty years later Robin Clifford Wood stepped onto the sagging floorboards of Rachel s long neglected home on the rugged shores of an island in Maine and began dredging up Rachel s history She was determined to answer the questions that filled the house s every crevice Who was this vibrant talented artist whose very name entrances those who still remember her work Why is that work so richly remunerated and widely celebrated in her lifetime so largely forgotten today The journey into Rachel s world took Wood further than she ever dreamed possible unveiling a life fraught with challenge and buried by tragedy and yet incandescent with joy The Field House is a book about beauty beauty in Maine island landscapes in friendship love and heartbreak beauty hidden beneath a woman s woefully unbeautiful exterior beauty in a rare delightful spirit that still whispers from the past Just listen

Children, the Magazine for Parents ,1927    Literature and the Child James Holt McGavran,James Holt McGavran,1998-04 The Romantic myth of childhood as a transhistorical holy time of innocence and spirituality uncorrupted by the adult world has been subjected in recent years to increasingly serious interrogation Was there ever really a time when mythic ideals were simple pure and uncomplicated The contributors to this book contend although in widely differing ways and not always approvingly that our culture is indeed still pervaded in this postmodern moment of the very late twentieth century by the Romantic conception of childhood which first emerged two hundred years ago In the wake of the French Revolution and the Industrial Revolution western Europe experienced another fin de si cle characterized by overwhelming material and institutional change and instability By historicizing the specific political social and economic conflicts at work within the notion of Romantic childhood the essayists in Literature and the Child show us how little these forces have changed over time and how enriching and empowering they can still be for children and their parents In the first section Romanticism Continued and Contested Alan Richardson and Mitzi Myers question the origins and ends of Romantic childhood In Romantic Ironies Postmodern Texts Dieter Petzold Richard Flynn and James McGavran argue that postmodern texts for both children and adults perpetuate the Romantic complexities of childhood Next in The Commerce of Children s Books Anne Lundin and Paula Connolly study the production and marketing of children s classics Finally in Romantic Ideas in Cultural Confrontations William Scheick and Teya Rosenberg investigate interactions of Romantic myths with those of other cultural systems    Windowpanes Helen Huus,Robert J. Whitehead,1971 The selections are illustrated with color drawings
