Teatimes Helen Saberi,2018-06-15 In Teatimes food historian Helen

Saberi takes us on a stimulating journey beyond the fine porcelain doilies crumpets and jam into the fascinating and diverse history of tea drinking From elegant afternoon teas hearty high teas and cricket and tennis teas to funeral teas cream teas and many more Saberi investigates the whole panoply of teatime rituals and ephemera including tea gardens tea dances tea gowns and tearooms We are invited to spend time in the sophisticated salons de thé of Paris and the cozy tearooms of the United States to enjoy the teatime traditions of Canada the United Kingdom Australia New Zealand and South Africa where housewives prided themselves on their well filled tins to sit in on the tea parties of the Raj and Irani cafes in India to savor teatimes along the Silk Road where the samovar and chaikhana reign supreme and to delight in the tasty dim sum of China and the intricate tradition of cha kaiseki in Japan Steeped in evocative illustrations and recipes from around the world

Teatimes shows how tea drinking has become a global obsession from American iced tea and Taiwanese bubble tea to the now classic English afternoon tea Pinkies up

New Comparison ,1997    Ambivalent Pleasures Scott K. Taylor,2024-08-15 Ambivalent Pleasures explores how Europeans wrestled with the novel experience of consuming substances that could alter moods and become addictive During the early modern period psychotropic drugs like sugar chocolate tobacco tea coffee distilled spirits like gin and rum and opium either arrived in western Europe for the first time or were newly available as everyday commodities Drawing from primary sources in English Dutch French Italian and Spanish Scott K Taylor shows that these substances embodied Europeans anxieties about race and empire religious strife shifting notions of class and gender roles and the moral implications of urbanization and global trade Through the writings of physicians theologians political pamphleteers satirists and others Ambivalent Pleasures tracks the emerging understanding of addiction fears about the racial class and gendered implications of using these soft drugs including that consuming them would make users more foreign and the new forms of sociability that coalesced around their use Even as Europeans moral concerns about the consumption of these drugs fluctuated the physical and sensory experiences of using them remained a critical concern anticipating present day rhetoric and policy about addiction to drugs and alcohol     The Home Book of Quotations, Classical and Modern Burton Egbert Stevenson,1947     LOVE IS A

SHADOW AVINASH PRADHAN, Love Is a Shadow by Avinash Pradhan In a world where love often shines in light this story dares to explore the darkness it leaves behind Love Is a Shadow is not a fairytale It s a raw emotional odyssey of Baibhav a boy burdened by the weight of first love silent heartbreak and the shadows of what once was Told through a shifting lens of memories and present day reflections the novel dives into Baibhav s deep unresolved feelings for Shakshi the girl who taught him what love could be and what it means to lose it without warning or closure As time weaves through past school corridors and quiet caf s to college struggles and inner healing each chapter unfolds like a scar he wears quietly This is a story of unsaid goodbyes shattered trust and the haunting beauty of a love that never really left just changed form With poetic scenes emotional flashbacks and a conclusion that leaves hearts heavy Love Is a Shadow is an unforgettable ride through the spaces between holding on and letting go For anyone who s ever loved deeply lost silently and asked themselves Was it all worth it this book might just hold your answer     The Art of Symbolic Resistance Joanne N. Smith Finley,2013-09-12 Against the background of the r mchi riots July 2009 this book provides a longitudinal study of contemporary Uyghur identities and Uyghur Han relations Previous studies considered China s Uyghurs from the perspective of the majority Han state or people Conversely The Art of Symbolic Resistance considers Uyghur identities from a local perspective based on interviews conducted with group members over nearly twenty years Smith Finley rejects assertions that the Uyghur ethnic group is a creation of the Chinese state suggesting that contemporary Uyghur identities involve a complex interplay between long standing intra group socio cultural commonalities and a more recently evolved sense of common enmity towards the Han This book advances the discipline in three senses from a focus on sporadic violent opposition to one on everyday symbolic resistance from state to local representations and from a conceptualisation of Uyghurs as victim to one of creative agent cone switch on a computer ride an escalator play a DVR watch a movie about dinosaurs or pop a tranquilizer you're doing something that originated at a world's fair or trade expo. In fact each new technology and every novel product that rocked America and rolled the world from the Colt revolver and the Corvette to fax machines and flush toilets started at trade fairs a 100 billion industry that includes world expos trade shows and state fairs. More than just promoting material things however trade fairs popularized and evangelized every social movement and cultural concept too including Manifest Destiny the closing of the frontier Nudism Nazism Fascism eugenics female suffrage temperance and technocracy. While there have been notable works on world's fairs by Robert Rydell Erik Larsen Erik Mattie and others they only capture a fragment of the whole mosaic of these shows a mosaic that makes the glitziest Las Vegas spectacle look like an Amish barn raising. This amusing book covers for example the World's Fair that featured a nudist colony 1935 Salvador Dali's half naked lobster women their virtue barely secured by well placed crustaceans 1939 a model of the Liberty Bell made of Oranges 1893 one of Thomas Edison's lesser known inventions the prefabricated concrete home 1907 and the Bayer Company's experiment with selling heroin. More memorable and culturally iconic debuts discussed here include electricity radios the Volkswagen and the Corvette television the X-ray machine air conditioning and even nylon stockings. Dozens of short illustrated chapters take the reader through over 150 years of world and trade fairs from the vibrators displayed by sexual health advocates at the 1900 World's Fair to the first true IMAX film at Expo 70 in Japan.
