Lord, Teach Us to

Pray John Belham, 2000 For those who will accept it with wonder and a humble willingness to learn the Lord's Prayer is an invitation to be greatly treasured. It will move us to trust, challenge us to give and stir us to worship. It will show us the depths of our unforgiving hearts and teach us to walk warily. Above all it will open our eyes to see what it is to live with the single aim of bringing glory to our heavenly Father. Rather than a prayer to repeat it is a magnificent house to explore. Packed with a very great deal of Christian devotion and Biblical teaching with a pastoral touch throughout.

is no calling or power greater than prayer. Prayer links the church to God. Let thy will be done as in heaven so upon the earth. When the Lord burdens our heart to pray we soon realize that we do not know how it is not in us to pray. It causes us to turn to our Lord and cry out. Lord teach us to pray we need to learn to take up Your burdens teach us. In Richmond Virginia from February 1981 through October 1982 Stephen Kaung gave a series of messages on corporate prayer. During this period he shared at the beginning of prayer meetings held every Wednesday evening. These spoken messages have been transcribed into this book. The spoken form has been preserved with only necessary editing for clarity. Some of the matters discussed for prayer are specific to the saints praying in Richmond however they are included because they contain principles that could be of help to all God's people.
