Queer Times, Black Futures Kara Keeling, 2019-04-16 Finalist 2019 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies A profound intellectual engagement with Afrofuturism and the philosophical questions of space and time Queer Times Black Futures considers the promises and pitfalls of imagination technology futurity and liberation as they have persisted in and through racial capitalism Kara Keeling explores how the speculative fictions of cinema music and literature that center black existence provide scenarios wherein we might imagine alternative worlds queer and otherwise In doing so Keeling offers a sustained meditation on contemporary investments in futurity speculation and technology paying particular attention to their significance to queer and black freedom Keeling reads selected works such as Sun Ra's 1972 film Space is the Place and the 2005 film The Aggressives to juxtapose the Afrofuturist tradition of speculative imagination with the similar speculations of corporate and financial institutions In connecting a queer cinematic reordering of time with the new possibilities technology offers Keeling thinks with and through a vibrant conception of the imagination as a gateway to queer times and black futures and the previously unimagined spaces that they can conjure

Populating the Future Britt Johanne Farstad, 2023-07-19 Speculative fiction opens doors for imagining beyond what is possible conventional or acceptable Speculative fiction has an acute ear for the social the scientific and for political developments and change all of which are prominent topics Reproduction and parenthood are pertinent social questions that are constantly renegotiated in various arenas By investigating representations of family making and reproduction in speculative fiction the research presented in Populating the Future Families and Reproduction in Speculative Fiction not only adds to the field of speculative fiction scholarship but also contributes to the more general discussion about reproduction and parenting Speculative fiction operates as thought laboratories that make connections between discourses visible It highlights power structures that can be difficult to detach and represents difficult and abstract issues more concretely As such speculative fiction demonstrates the complex entanglement of reproduction with issues of gender power and agency By facilitating thought experiments and illustrating alternatives speculative fiction also enables the representation of new family structures and reproductive technologies thus paving the way for discussions about various practices and their possible consequences Due to its multidisciplinary approach this book will be of value to scholars and students of various disciplines such as literature studies philosophy ethics political science the social sciences and gender studies It will also be a useful resource in teacher training programmes as well as to a more general audience interested in speculative literature politics society gender and ethics Proverbs, Maxims and Phrases of All Ages ,1887 Collected Wheel Publications Vol. XI Various, Subhadra Bhikshu (Friedrich Zimmermann), Nyanaponika Thera, Bhikkhu Bodhi, William Peiris, K.
