How To Lie About Your Age:

The Liar in Your Life Robert Feldman, 2009-08-03 In The Liar in Your Life psychology professor Robert Feldman one of the world's leading authorities on deception draws on his immense body of knowledge to give fresh insights into how and why we lie how our culture has become increasingly tolerant of deception the cost it exacts on us and what to do about it His work is at once surprising and sobering full of corrections for common myths and explanations of pervasive oversimplifications Feldman examines marital infidelity little white lies career driven resum lies and how we teach children to lie Along the way he reveals despite our beliefs to the contrary how it is nearly impossible to spot a liar studies have shown no relationship between nervousness lack of eye contact or a trembling voice and acts of deception He also provides startling evidence of just how integral lying is to our culture indeed his research shows that two people meeting for the first time will lie to each other an average of three times in the first ten minutes of a conversation Feldman uses this discussion of deception to explore ways we can cope with infidelity betrayal and mistrust in our friends and family He also describes the lies we tell ourselves Sometimes the liar in your life is the person you see in the mirror With incisive clarity and wry wit

Casting Couch Nancy Bishop, 2014-01-08 Any actor who is serious about his or her career should read this book. Matthew Stillman Producer Casino Royale Wanted The Chronicles of Narnia Prince Caspian As a director casting a movie can be a terrifying process. Put the wrong actor in your project and you're sunk. How do you find the right person if you're working with Nancy Bishop? You know you're in good accomplished hands whether you're a director or an actor. Neil Burger Director of The Illusionist Why is it that so many good actors don't perform well at castings? Secrets from the Casting Couch gives practical advice for actors written from a casting director's point of view teaching the craft of film casting in front of camera. It shows how actors can work with today's internet technologies to get cast and features advice and actual exercises that achieve results in the casting studio. Emmy award nominated casting director Nancy Bishop C SA has developed a successful approach through many years experience of working in the casting studio. The author also runs internationally recognised master classes throughout Europe and the US and is the head of the Prague Film School Acting Department. , Raise Your Sons and Daughters with Real Unconditional Love John Sangwon Lee, MD., FAAP, 2023-01-11 Raise Your Sons and Daughters with Real Unconditional Love By John Sangwon Lee MD FAAP Pediatrician John Sangwon Lee MD FAAP has years of experience with parenting methods and children's health in both America and in South Korea. With these combined experiences and his own as a father Dr Lee puts forth Raise Your Sons and Daughters with Real Unconditional Love a guide to raising children with kindness, empathy and love. He describes in detail the types of love needed for parents to raise their children well: eye contact, love, physical contact, love and focused attention, love. With his familiarity of American and South Korean parenting styles he sets forth to create a shared foundation of parenting knowledge using the positive childrearing practices of both nations. Whether you are a new parent or already have children of your own Dr Lee's in-depth explanations of newborn, toddler, child and adolescent physical and mental health combined with insightful guides on how parents should handle difficult or new situations is an essential read.

Morality and the Literary Imagination Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-07-12 In a letter to Boccaccio Petrarch extolled the virtue of poetry and letters for promoting an understanding of both human nature and morals. The letter was designed to console him after hearing a prediction that he was soon to die and that he ought to renounce poetry. The prophecy came from an elder renowned for his piety but Petrarch admonished that too often dishonesty and fraud are couched in religious sentiments. Nothing not even death according to Petrarch ought to divert us from literature. For Petrarch Virgil was the source for understanding how literary studies not only promote eloquence but enhance morals. If anything literature dispels the fear of death. The claims of this volume is that it may be the case that the virtuous life can be achieved by those ignorant of letters but a more direct and certain route is guaranteed by a devotion to literature. The collected works in this new volume of the Transaction series Religion and Public Life heeds Petrarch's advice that literature not only orients us to life's developmental stages it can provide us with a more complete understanding of the human character while artfully advancing morals. To this end Michelle Darnell's opening chapter entitled A New Age of Reason explains how existentialism is an argument for how literature can take on philosophical form not as formal argument but as persuasive narrative Over the objections of even those who study Sartre Darnell uses Sartre's The Age of Reason as a model and shows how his literary output was a legitimate philosophical inquiry In addition to the Darnell piece the volume boasts a series of outstanding and innovative works by scholars in the field Taken together as a whole these authors not only illustrate the moral consequences of an original choice but oblige the reader to explore the ramifications of such a choice in one's own life Notes and Queries ,1874 My Name is Today ,1999 History of English Literature Hippolyte Taine,1871 Familiar Quotations ...
