The Global Intercultural Communication Reader Molefi Kete Asante,Yoshitaka Miike,Jing Yin,2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today s students of intercultural communication An Introduction to Intercultural Communication Fred E. Jandt,2012-02-02 Filled with thought provoking examples photos quotes cases and stories that spark students interest and challenge them to reconsider existing viewpoints the Seventh Edition of Fred Jandt s An Introduction to Intercultural Communication a historical framework featuring extensive relevant updates prepares today s readers to successfully navigate our increasingly global community Theories in Intercultural Communication Young Yun Kim,William B Gudykunst,1988-10 Published in cooperation with the Speech Communication Association Division on International and Intercultural Communication Just as the earlier version of this work Intercultural Communication Theory helped to define the field Theories In Intercultural Communication also makes an important contribution This collection represents the major current approaches to the study of intercultural communication as well as of communication in general The contributors cover constructivist theory coordinated management theory convergence theory adaptation in intercultural relationships intercultural transformation and network theory The volume offers an analysis of the most current theories in intercultural communication It also points to areas of further research and the need for continued refinements of existing approaches This volume is valuable for graduate students and professionals in the areas of communication especially intercultural and interpersonal ethnic studies cross cultural studies comparative studies and education The book is well conceived in its purpose scope and organization It is also well executed with an even quality throughout Each chapter author clearly presents the theory and provides thorough documentation This volume promises to become a central piece in both the definition and development of theory in intercultural communication Modern Language Journal This volume does represent a significant attempt to consolidate and crystallize the current intellectual core concepts of mainstream intercultural communications theories and to push the field forward toward a more rigorous and coherent state As a collection these essays cover a lot of the bumpy terrain that constitutes the field of intercultural communication from an interpersonal perspective Very useful in the context of a university course on intercultural communications Canadian Journal of Communication Methods for Intercultural Communication Research William B. Gudykunst,Young Yun Kim,1984-04-01 The methodology behind intercultural communication research has been largely neglected by scholars of intercultural communication The aim of this volume is to advance the study of intercultural communication and move away from the current abstract stage of development The editors have collected contributions which examine the skills necessary to have a firm grounding in general methodological issues research techniques statistics methods for doing comparative sociology and methods of traditional anthropology Essays also deal with problems arising from such research and the sociology of knowledge of intercultural communication as opposed to cross cultural communication Two features make this volume exceptional Fir Journal of Education for Library and Information Science, 1991 Understanding Communication Theory John F. Cragan, Donald C. Shields, 1998 Anyone who wishes to pursue a career in communication with groups needs this comprehensive book on the theories behind communication This volume provides practical engaging overviews of over 42 different theories that readers will need to be aware of if they are pursuing this serious field The authors established writers and scholars who are known as the park rangers of communication theory have provided a user friendly tour Accurate up to date and comprehensive this volume will prove a valuable addition to the literature on the subject Those involved in communication careers

Intercultural Communication Heiner Pürschel, 1994 At a time when technology and transport are making the world smaller and smaller and thus the need to communicate greater and greater linguists have been prompted to make intercultural communication one of their major topics Step by step and with the aim of achieving a greater understanding of and proficiency in intercultural encounters linguists continue to describe and compare foreign cultures languages and communication patterns Politeness verbal and non verbal rituals social interaction such as greetings invitations small talk telephoning procedural matters in institutional multi cultural negotiations are among the subjects dealt with in this volume They will be of interest not only to linguists but also to all those involved in foreign language teaching translation and the mass media Intercultural Communication James W. Neuliep, 2006 This introduction to intercultural communication provides students with a clear model for examining communication within cultural micro cultural environmental socio relational and perceptual contexts The author depicts his theory as a series of circles representing the idea that communication is defined by the interdependence of cultural contexts His presentation of contexts begins with the outermost cultural circle of the model and moves inward toward the most specific traits of communication verbal and non verbal messages Each chapter focuses on one context and the combination of factors included within that context setting situation and circumstances The text also highlights influences such as values ethnicity physical geography and attitudes and then examines certain means of interaction including body language eye contact and the exchange of words Additional topics covered include the stages of relationships cross cultural management intercultural conflict and culture shock Features Self report instruments help students understand themselves and assess their performance and skill development as they learn the important concepts of intercultural communication Every chapter contains a summary glossary of terms and an extensive reference list Photos charts and graphs help make the material more accessible and realistic to students A content rich Website offers resources for instructors and students including PowerPoint slides to enhance class presentations Impact of Gender, Organizational Role, and Multicultural Status on Conflict Resolution Style Preference Jennifer Lea Holt, 2000 This research involved primarily a meta analysis of conflict resolution research derived from Blake and Mouton s

1964 dual concerns theory Secondarily focus group research assessed the field validity of the results Dual concerns theory postulates that organizational conflict involves balancing the desire to obtain one's own goals concern for production versus the desire to retain interpersonal relationships concern for people By placing the two aspects on an axis called the managerial grid Blake and Mouton mapped out five styles of managing conflict forcing avoiding accommodating compromising and problem solving Numerous studies validate the central ideas of the theory respondents rank styles of resolving conflict depending upon the degree of concern for retaining relationships versus the degree of concern for meeting goals However there is great disparity among study results In this study meta analytic techniques were used to provide a clearer overall picture of conflict resolution rankings Analyses were conducted of published and unpublished research results with statistical measures of conflict resolution style preferences focusing on the variables of worker minority status including ethnicity gender and foreign national and organizational role status of referent group including superior subordinate and peer The results of the meta analyses were 1 Ethnicity and foreign national insufficient studies for overall meta analysis tentative results using one instrument showed Asian ethnicities highest on avoiding Middle Easterners highest on compromising Hispanic Americans highest on accommodating African Americans lowest on avoiding and European Americans highest on problem solving 2 Gender meta analysis indicated females were significantly more likely to use accommodating and compromising males significantly preferred forcing 3 Organizational role meta analysis indicated respondents used avoiding significantly more with peers than with subordinates and compromising style less with subordinates than superiors Focus group results corroborated the results in general but there was strong consensus about the need to regard each individual as a unique combination of many influences Further research is needed particularly on multicultural status however due to the tendency for pertinent studies to favor more inclusive conflict resolution instruments than those utilized for the purposes of this research other means of overall analysis should be considered

Readings in Intercultural Communication: Experiences and Contexts Judith Martin, Thomas Nakayama, Lisa Flores, 2002 The goal of this revised edition is to explore multiple perspectives in intercultural communication that are grounded in the everyday communication experiences of study The essays in this edition range from the classic writings of E T Hall Gerry Philipsen and Geert Hofstede to more recent scholarship influenced by critical theory and cultural studies

Social Psychology Across Cultures Peter Bevington Smith, Michael Harris Bond, 1994

Chinese Conflict Management and Resolution Guo-Ming Chen, Ringo Ma, 2002 This collection of essays takes critical steps toward understanding the way the Chinese manage and resolve conflict Twenty chapters form this comprehensive text that explores both its theoretical and practical aspects

Handbook of Intercultural Communication Helga Kotthoff, Helen Spencer-Oatey, 2009 In today's globalized world of international contact and multicultural interaction effective intercultural communication is increasingly seen as a pre requisite for social harmony and organisational success This handbook takes a problem solving approach to the various issues that arise in real life intercultural interaction The editors have brought together experts from a range of disciplines including linguistics psychology and anthropology to provide a multidisciplinary perspective on the field whilst simultaneously anchoring it in Applied Linguistics Key features provides a state of the art description of different areas in the context of intercultural communication presents a critical appraisal of the relevance of the field offers solutions for everyday language related problems international handbook with contributions from renowned experts in the field Foreign Language Instruction Richard D.
