Soldier O: The Bosnian Inferno David Monnery,2013-12-12 In 1993 as civil war continued to rage in Bosnia a strange story began to emerge In the isolated mountain town of Zavik a small army of Serbs Muslims and Croats had been formed under the command of a renegade Briton by the name of Reeve Originally organised to defend the town against the tides of war and ethnic cleansing this force had subsequently started mounting raids further afield in search of food fuel and medical supplies All sides in the war were enraged by the exploits and the very existence of this maverick army even the UN mediators recognised the need for its suppression But there were only two people Reeve would be likely to listen to his ex wife and an ex comrade in the SAS The latter was willing to take a team of SAS men into Zavik the former had first to be found she was either trapped in Sarajevo or imprisoned in a Serbian concentration camp Rescuing her would be only the beginning The SAS team would then have to traverse the mountainous war zone and force their way into the besieged town This would be difficult enough Fighting their way out of the war ravaged territory with a convoy of the sick the old and the very young would be next to impossible
