Bless Your Heart Lindy Ryan, 2024-07-18 It's 1999 in Southeast Texas and the Evans women owners of the only funeral parlor in town are keeping steady with normal business. The dead die, you bury them. End of story. That's how Ducey Evans has done it for the last eighty years, and her progeny Lenore, the experimenter, and Grace, Lenore's soft-hearted daughter, have run Evans Funeral Parlor for the last fifteen years without drama. Ever since That Godawful Mess that left two bodies in the ground and Grace raising her infant daughter Luna alone. But when town gossip Mina Jean Murphy's body is brought in for a regular burial and she rises from the dead, instead it's clear that the Strigoi, the original vampire, are back. And the Evans women are the ones who need to fight back to protect their town. As more folks in town turn up dead and Deputy Roger Taylor begins asking way too many questions, Ducey, Lenore, Grace, and now Luna must take up their blades and figure out who is behind the Strigoi's return. As the saying goes, what rises up must go back down. But as unspoken secrets and revelations spill from the past into the present, the Evans family must face that sometimes the dead aren't the only things you want to keep buried. A crackling mystery horror novel with big-hearted characters and Southern charm with a bite. Bless Your Heart is a gasp-worthy delight from start to finish.

Discourse, Power, and Resistance Down Under Mark Vicars, Tarquam McKenna, 2014-02-07 DPR Down Under Volume 2 draws together a spirited collection of papers presented at the Australian Discourse Power and Resistance conference held in Darwin 2012. The volume of work addresses and seeks to contextualise the problematic question: What counts as good research and who decides? Each chapter in this volume, written from differing theoretical and methodological positions, articulates a notion of what could be considered as being good research and is in some way involved in speaking a truth back to power. The chapters invite the reader to rethink and reconsider the inherently political, critical, and subversive nature of research from a range of critical investigations.

Women of Courage Katherine Martin, 2010-10-06 The 41 ordinary and well-known women honored in this first book in New World Library's People Who Dare series have shown forms of bravery that, according to editor Martin, go largely unrecognized, such as persevering in adverse circumstances, challenging tradition, showing vulnerability, fostering healing, and listening to one's heart. Concern about her children's education impelled Patty Murray, currently U.S. Senator from Washington, to run against an incumbent and win a seat in her state senate. Acting out of a deeply felt commitment to the poor, Dr. Janelle Goetcheus, along with other physicians, she recruited, founded Christ House, a renovated apartment building where seriously ill, homeless patients stay and receive care. After she was diagnosed with breast cancer, Laura Evans celebrated her survival by founding Expedition Inspiration, an organization that takes breast cancer survivors on mountain climbs. Cora Lee Johnson's longtime dream of starting a community sewing center became a reality when she was 62, because, although poor and uneducated, she persevered by talking about the center to anyone who would listen. Men and women both will find inspiration for their own lives in these captivating stories.
