Karate-do Kevin L. Seiler,Donald J. Seller,2006 Karate Do evolved as a martial art in Okinawa where it was nurtured by centuries of Okinawan culture and innovation What inspired the ancient masters to develop these martial techniques and practices was the human instinct for self preservation not a desire for entertainment or sporting competition Traditional karate do should be practiced with this in mind Here you will find a complete personal training handbook to supplement training in any karate do system or other martial art style The authors have systematically organized their experiences and research into easily digestible segments and have included numerous photographs throughout the text This book will inspire you to train even more diligently and the experiences and research shared here will be useful on the journey of any traditional martial artist

The Karate Way

Dave Lowry,2009-01-13 Karate is not just a sport or a hobby it s a lifetime study toward perfection of character Here Dave Lowry one of the best known writers on the Japanese martial arts illuminates the complete path of karate including practice philosophy and culture He covers myriad subjects of interest to karate practitioners of all ages and levels including The relationship between students and teachers Cultivating the correct attitude during practice The differences between karate in the East and West Whether a karate student really needs to study in Japan to perfect the art The meaning of rank and the black belt Detailed descriptions of kicks punches evasions and techniques and the philosophical concepts that they manifest What practice means and looks like as one ages How the practice of karate aims toward cultivating character and spiritual development After forty years studying karate and the budo arts Lowry is an informative and reliable guide highlighting aspects of the karate path that will surprise entertain and enlighten

The Spirit of Karate-do Andrew W.

Bowerbank,1997 Tsuruoka Karate has a long history in Canada indeed within the world of karate The unique theories and techniques developed and evolved by Tsuruoka Sensei reflect his own humanity and charisma People and karate cannot exist separately from society The spirit of tranquility is achieved in one of two ways one either escapes into a world of ideas or one gathers together like minded individuals and challenges the world to change The success of Tsuruoka karate lies in the integration of these two approaches and leads karate ka into a most appealing world

Traditional Karate-do: Applications of the kata Morio Higaonna,1985 Karate-Do Gichin Funakoshi,2013-02-01 Linking the time when karate was a strictly Okinawan art of self defense shrouded in the deepest secrecy and the present day when it has become a martial art practiced throughout the world is Gichin Funakoshi the Father of Karate do Out of modesty he was reluctant to write this autobiography and did not do so until he was nearly ninety years of age Trained in the Confucian classics he was a schoolteacher early in life but after decades of study under the foremost masters he gave up his livelihood to devote the rest of his life to the propagation of the Way of Karate Under his guidance techniques and nomenclature were refined and modernized the spiritual essence was brought to the fore and karate evolved into a true martial art Various forms of empty hand techniques have been practiced in Okinawa for centuries but due to the lack of historical records fancy often masquerades as fact In telling of his own famous teachers and not only of their mastery of technique but of the way they acted in critical situations the author reveals what true karate is The stories he tells about himself are no less instructive his determination to continue the art after having started it to improve his health his perseverance in the face of difficulties even of poverty his strict observance of the way of life of the samurai and the spirit of self reliance that he carried into an old age kept healthy by his practice of Karate do
