Christine Marie Phillips, Peter Raisbeck

Spirit Of Progreb Art Deco Architecture In Australia:

A Spirit of Progress Patrick van Daele, Roy Lumby, 1997 Until recently scorned or ignored by many historians and commentators Australia's Art Deco architecture of the 1920s and 1930s endures as a unique record of its time and a mirror of the hopes and aspirations of Australians in the years between the two world wars A Spirit of Progress Art Deco Architecture in Australia provides a valuable insight into this significant period in Australia's social economic and artistic development In his travels across Australia photographer Patrick Van Daele has captured the wealth that is Australia's Art Deco architecture From the corporate splendours of tall office buildings to the engineering marvels of great dams and the domestic style of the home the photographs mirror the achievement and the human aspect of the inter war era in this country They are illuminated by Roy Lumby's authoritative text which describes the history and development of this important style in Australia and the fascinating times in which it appeared Moving to the Modern Carol Cosgrove, 2009 Devon House (art Deco Retail Building) Devon House (art deco retail building)., Melbourne Art Deco Robin Grow, 2014 Melbourne is a great Art Deco city The heyday of the 1930s brought the construction of some of Melbourne's most striking and beautiful buildings From the towering police headquarters in Russell Street to the tiniest detail of a suburban interior Art Deco styling maintains an enduring presence in all facets of Melbourne's cultural life In Melbourne Art Deco Robin Grow President of the Art Deco Modernism Society Inc examines the rise fall and resurgence of Art Deco in Melbourne from the 1930s to the present day With contemporary images by David Thompson and a team of photographers supported by archival material Melbourne Art Deco offers an invaluable insight into the history and current state of one of the city's most popular styles First published in 2009 the book has been updated in 2014 Australian Art Deco Hotels, 2019-03-09 Modern Heritage Cameron Bruhn, 2024 Art deco in Australia, 1993 First Knowledges Design Alison Page, Paul Memmott, 2021-04-27 Aboriginal design is of a distinctly cultural nature based in the Dreaming and in ancient practices grounded in Country It is visible in the aerodynamic boomerang the ingenious design of fish traps and the precise layouts of community settlements that strengthen social cohesion Alison Page and Paul Memmott show how these design principles of sophisticated function sustainability and storytelling refined over many millennia are now being applied to contemporary practices Design Building on Country issues a challenge for a new Australian design ethos one that truly responds to the essence of Country and its people About the series Each book is a collaboration between Indigenous and non Indigenous writers and editors the series is edited by Margo Neale senior Indigenous curator at the National Museum of Australia Other titles in the series include Songlines by Margo Neale Country by Bill Gammage Plants by Zena Cumpston Michael Fletcher Astronomy 2022 Innovation 2023 Art Deco and Modernism Society Art Deco and Modernism Society, Art Deco on the Mornington Peninsula, Victoria, Australia Peter Holloway, 2012 Art Deco Society of New South Wales Art Deco Society of N.S.W., Art Deco, Perth, Western Australia Annette Perotti, 2017 50/60/70 Iconic Australian Houses Karen

McCartney,2007 From the 1950s to the 1970s the work of Lloyd Wright Gropius and van der Rohe strongly influenced a generation of young Australian architects who adopted modernist principles in their work Karen McCartney has compiled 15 significant examples each by a different architect of homes that combine outstanding architectural principles and an authentic interior decor A comprehensive introduction places the movement in social historical and architectural context before each of the selected homes is discussed in detail in an informed engaging essay style The relationship of architect owner is discussed as are the linking of the building to its site materials and architectural detailing The author has interviewed many architects and owners for their personal insights Each study includes a feature on the interior decoration and a discussion of designers and manufacturers of iconic furniture fabrics etc Harold Desbrowe-Annear Harriet

Edquist,2004-05-28 The architectural masterpieces urban planning projects and bohemian existence that characterized the life of Australian architect Harold Desbrowe Annear are examined in this tribute to a major proponent of the arts and crafts movement in architecture The projects detailed in this study include the apartments and houses in Melbourne that Desbrowe Annear designed in the Queen Anne art deco and arts and crafts styles the Corporation Arch commissioned to celebrate the arrival of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York in 1901 and the Church Street bridge in Melbourne Both a member of the artist community and a friend to powerful members of the political establishment Desbrowe Annear produced works of merit that earned him awards and wide recognition in the early part of the 20th century Pioneers of Modernism

Harriet Edquist,2008 Remediating a neglected part of architectural history this volume presents the work of four of Australia s most innovative arts and crafts architects Walter Butler Harold Desbrowe Annear Walter Liberty Vernon and Robin Dods The influence of the arts and crafts movement in Australia has long been lost between the far better known Gothic and classical revivals and the modernist movement and obscured by the chronological construction of federation architecture but this study along with the accompanying photographs and plans brings to life the simple lines of their design and illustrates why it is so deserving of further recognition 70/80/90 Iconic Australian Houses Karen McCartney,2011 In this follow up to the design classic 50 60 70 Iconic Australian Houses Karen McCartney founding editor of interiors magazine Inside Out has compiled a selection of significant examples of Australian houses of the 1970s 80s and 90s each brilliantly photographed and with a depth of coverage rarely seen before Featured architects include Richard Leplastrier Glenn Murcutt and Wood Marsh The book s introduction provides social historical and architectural context A review of each house features technical and practical aspects of the design along with personal insights from homeowners and architects as well as a section focusing on architectural details The Other Moderns Rebecca Hawcroft,2017 While Harry Seidler is one of Australia s most famous architects little is known of his European born contemporaries The Other Moderns uncovers the work of Sydney s forgotten migr architects interior designers and furniture makers working from the 1930s to 1960s and reveals their groundbreaking impact on modernist design Highlighting the direct connections between Sydney and the European design centers of Vienna

Berlin and Budapest the book provides a new understanding of modernism Profiling the work of architects like Henry Epstein and Hugo Stossel along with Gerstl Furniture The Other Moderns tells the story of the network of architects designers property developers retailers and photographers working together to bring a distinctly European style to mid century Australia Richly illustrated with rare photography including stunning images from Austrian born photographer Margaret Michaelis and furniture from the collection of Hotel Hotel Canberra the book explores the work of this unacknowledged group of style makers for the first time Robin Boyd Christine Marie Phillips, Peter Raisbeck, 2020-04-15 Robin Boyd Late Works unveils the urban and public architectural projects designed by Robin Boyd one of Australia's most iconic mid century modernists in the final decade before his untimely death in 1971 One of the few architects in Australia's history to have become a household name Boyd rose to prominence as a public intellectual after the release of his book The Australian Ugliness in 1960 a biting attack on what he saw as the debased quality of Australia's cities and design culture Upon its release the book drew both condemnation and praise in Australia's media but in the process gave Boyd a national platform from which to campaign throughout the 1960s for the betterment of Australia's built environment Concomitant with his public pronouncements during this time though Boyd was hard at work attempting to prosecute his vision of a more coherent and contemporary Australian urban environment and culture This work took the form of building and planning designs at sometimes vast scales that run counter to Boyd's reputation as an architect of polite modernist private houses Robin Boyd Late Works considers these important but largely forgotten architectural projects alongside his exhibition work multimedia designs and his writing Bringing to light material buried deep in the archives of several national institutions this book documents Boyd's ambitions and struggles to shape Australia's understanding of itself as an urban nation during this time For Boyd the 1960s was a turbulent decade of architectural practice that by the time of his death had come with thwarted ambitions and high personal cost Australian Modern Design Christopher Osborne, 2013 Australian Modern Design Mid 20th Century Architecture Design The genesis of Australian Modern Design is to give readers an insight into mid 20th century design providing a unique perspective into the world of design We hope these articles will lead to a greater understanding and awareness of Australia's history and cultural heritage dispelling the notion that good design can only originate from overseas With contributions from local architects writers collectors and designers Australian Modern Design will celebrate the diversity of ideas of post war Australia What do the terms modern and modernism vintage and Retro really mean Modern can be defined in many ways avant garde experimental or simple representative of recent times What meaning you assign is a personal choice and the same applies to selecting good design In Australian Modern Design you will discover the hidden treasures of Australian architecture art and design explore 1960s houses and venture into Australia's art design and cultural history
