The Mature Church Emmanuel D. Mbennah, 2013-08-09 In this book Emmanuel Mbennah argues that Christian spiritual maturity is the bridge between the new identity of the Christian articulated in Ephesians 1:3 and the moral code of the Christian life commensurate with the new identity presented in Ephesians 4:17-6:20 From an interpretation of Ephesians 4:13 Mbennah brings to the fore what Christian spiritual maturity is and why it is imperative He argues that Ephesians 4:1-16 is about spiritual maturity and not about Christian unity except unity as a by product of maturity A case study in which the meaning of spiritual maturity is used as a critical standard to evaluate the spiritual maturity of a church in a particular context further clarifies the meaning of spiritual maturity and demonstrates what a sad state of immaturity a church could be in Mbennah calls for the Church's return to the pursuit of maturity and a return to the subject in New Testament scholarship

Aiming at Maturity Stephen W. Rankin, 2011-11-11 It seems that much of American Christianity has lost sight of the goal of growing to maturity in Christ This loss of vision has had serious consequences for the quality of our witness and ministry In Aiming at Maturity Steven W Rankin seeks to bring back into focus key qualities of spiritual maturity and summarizes important biblical passages to show the scriptural foundations that call for spiritual maturity Rankin also addresses certain tendencies in popular Christian culture to reduce doctrinal truths to sound bites with the laudable but counterproductive goal to make doctrine memorable therefore applicable Thinking more expansively about certain key doctrines related to the work of Christ and the impact of grace contributes to growth toward maturity in a way that popular descriptions of these doctrines do not Finally Rankin also challenges readers to consider the important role of emotions in developing Christlike dispositions which contribute toward producing the fruit of a mature Christian life By looking at relevant modern research Aiming at Maturity shows the inherent connection between thoughts and feelings that draw us closer to the actual biblical description of the heart
