Spit Nolan Bill Naughton,1992-10 A race between two coaster car competitors in England ends tragically     The Goalkeeper's Revenge Bill Naughton,2011-09-28 The Goalkeeper's Revenge is comprised of stories of a Lancashire childhood of football on the streets fishing fighting and school of growing up and looking for work and of characters such as Spit Nolan the champion trolley rider Sim Dalt the goalkeeper and Maggie Gregory the amazing reader     Coping with Special Needs Geof Sewell,2018-09-03 First published in 1986 Following the Warnock report schools attempted to integrate the teaching of children with special needs into ordinary classrooms Many teachers had no experience of teaching children with special needs and the new developments were likely to pose a substantial challenge This book provides a guidance for inexperienced especially new teachers in how to teach children with special needs in ordinary classrooms An important feature of the book is realism the book grows out of the author's own experiences and research The author describes what really happens and bases his suggestions on practices which are likely to bring results     Owners of the Means of Instruction? Jenny Plastow,2007 Marx and Marxism supposedly dead and buried seem to find ways of staying alive This collections of articles explores how some of these ideas might offer useful ways at looking at children's literature Contributions include views of children's books and periodicals written in Britain during the Great War and a paper on Walter Benjamin     Portfolios Pat Belanoff,Marcia Dickson,1991 This book the first to focus exclusively on portfolio assessment is practical theoretical and broad in scope offering places to start rather than claiming to be definitive The articles all by teachers with considerable experience in using portfolio grading are free of jargon making sound composition and assessment theory available to every reader regardless of the level of writing taught     The Storytellers ,1971

K. Epperson,1993-04 Not much has changed in remote in Denke Kansas since the pioneer days For more than 100 years its citizens have worked far outside the laws of man and nature hunting down strangers stealing their money and their lives But the time has come at last for every one of them to pay for their unspeakable crimes

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1989-05     New Zealand Books in Print ,1998     The Oxford Book of Children's Stories Jan Mark,1994 Here are some of the very best short stories written for children over the last 250 years Compiled by the well known children's writer and Carnegie Medalist Jan Mark this is the first anthology to trace how children's short stories evolved ranging from the publication of Sarah Fielding's The Governess in 1749 to Nadia Wheatley's Convict Box in 1992. Anyone who enjoys children's fiction whether young or old will find something to savor in The Oxford Book of Children's Stories. Fairy tales, ghost stories, adventures and escapades in and out of school, every genre is included here, peopled by good children and bad, strict parents and kindly aunts, kings and queens, giants and enchanters. Mark includes work by 44 different authors including well known figures such as Louisa May Alcott, Christina Rossetti, Rudyard Kipling, Max Beerbohm and Carl Sandburg, leading modern writers such as Philippa Pearce, Richard Kennedy, Nadia Wheatley and Jan Mark herself, plus many long forgotten tales that are still highly entertaining today. Chronologically arranged, the anthology also serves as an introduction to the historical development of the children's short story, providing insights into the way perceptions of childhood and contemporary attitudes have influenced writers of different periods. But as Jan Mark's discriminating selection demonstrates, the ingredients of a good children's story as well as the fictional tastes of children themselves have remained remarkably constant despite changes in style and outlook. This is a collection to divert and surprise, an ideal survey of the children's short story for parents, professionals and especially for the children themselves.
