The Constant Gardener Richard Jacques, 2006 Roger Ebert's Four Star Reviews--1967-2007 Roger Ebert, 2008-02 Presents a collection of the critic's most positive film reviews of the last four decades arranged alphabetically from About Last Night to Zodiac Rumble and Crash Milo Sweedler, 2019-02-01 Analyzes six films as allegories of capitalism's precarious state in the early twenty first century At the beginning of the twenty first century as the contradictions of capitalism became more apparent than at any other time since the 1920s numerous films gave allegorical form to the crises of contemporary capitalism Some films were overtly political in nature while others refracted the vicissitudes of capital in stories that were not on the surface explicitly political Rumble and Crash examines six particularly rich and thought provoking films in this vein These films Milo Sweedler argues give narrative and audiovisual form to the increasingly pervasive sense that the economic system we have known and accepted as inevitable and ubiquitous is in fact riddled with self destructive flaws Analyzing four movies from before the global financial crisis of 2008 and two that allegorize the financial meltdown itself Sweedler explores how cinema responded to one of the defining crises of our time Films examined include Alfonso Cuarón's Children of Men 2006 Stephen Gaghan's Syriana 2005 Fernando Meirelles's The Constant Gardener 2005 Spike Lee's Inside Man 2006 Martin Scorsese's The Wolf of Wall Street 2013 and Woody Allen's Blue Jasmine 2013 Milo Sweedler has produced what are surely the most original provocative and downright dazzling readings of a handful of socially significant and potent films released during the tumultuous years from 2005 to 2013 This is a fine book David Desser former editor Cinema Journal

New Transnationalisms in Contemporary Latin American Cinemas Dolores Tierney, 2018-01-23 In the late 1990s and early 2000s Latin American films like Amores perros Y tu mamá también and Cidade de Deus enjoyed an unprecedented level of critical and commercial success in the world market Benefitting from external financial and or creative input these films were considered examples of transnational cinema Through a textual analysis of six filmmakers Alejandro Gonzalez Inarritu Alfonso Cuarón Guillermo del Toro Fernando Meirelles Walter Salles and Juan Jose Campanella this book examines these transnational films and the subsequent wave of commercially successful deterritorialised films by the same directors It argues that although films produced within the structures of the United States film industry may have been commercially successful they are not necessarily apolitical or totally divorced from key notions of national or continental identity Bringing a new perspective to the films of Latin America's transnational auteurs this is a major contribution towards understanding how different genres function across different cultures
