Janice Baker

The Human Museum:

Human Remains & Museum Practice Unesco. General Conference, 2006 Human Remains and Museum Practice reflects the discussions held at the Museum of London as part of an international symposium on the political and ethical dimensions of the collection and display of human remains in museums. It explores fundamental issues of collecting and displaying human remains including ethics, interpretation and repatriation as they apply in different parts of the world. The first section looks at the overriding issues whilst the second part describes the practices in different parts of the world.

Museums, Art and Inclusion in a Climate Emergency Janice Baker, 2023-06-09 Museums Art and Inclusion in a Climate Emergency considers the impact of the Anthropocene on history and memory, approaches to objects and agency, and the incommensurability of western and Indigenous ontologies. Drawing on Indigenous knowledge, humanities and museological literature, continental philosophy, contemporary art and popular culture, Baker acknowledges the autonomous agency of geological forms including soils, minerals and fossil fuels. Demonstrating that this has implications for an expanded idea of an inclusive museum and its relationship to entities beyond life and living species, the book argues that the inclusion paradigm needs to include non-life actors. Gesturing to a geontological turn through developing notions of geo-inclusion, the mineral-human and approaches to object agency that connect with Aboriginal heritage, Baker exposes the ongoing destruction of Country by mining interests in Western Australia and elsewhere. By addressing the need for urgent change through the artifice of the museum, the book identifies an expanded approach to inclusion beyond the limits imposed by the politics of identity. Museums Art and Inclusion in a Climate Emergency theorises the potential of an expanded idea of the museum and will be of interest to scholars and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage, environmental humanities and geo-humanities, ecological art history and contemporary art.

The Museum of Other People Adam Kuper, 2023-02-02 A TLS BEST BOOK OF 2023 A formidable work. Nigel Barley, author of The Innocent Anthropologist, Should be required reading. Richard Lambert, Financial Times A magnificent moving survey. Felipe Fernández Armesto, TLS This is a history of the ways in which foreign and prehistoric peoples were represented in museums of anthropology with their displays of arts and artifacts, their dioramas, their special exhibitions and their arrays of skulls and skeletons. Originally created as colonial enterprises, what is the purpose of these places today? What should they do with the items in their custodianship? And how can they help us to understand and appreciate other cultures? Informed by a lifetime of research and scholarship, this subtle and original work tackles painful questions about race, colonialism, difference and cultural appropriation. The result is a must-read for anyone concerned with the coexistence of different modes of life.
