Hindoos were not excluded from office nor subjected to the capitation tax Christian missionaries were not hindered from making converts even in the imperial family Two nephews of Jehangir embraced their faith Under Shah Jehan three sons of that Emperor professed three different persuasions Dara adhered to the eclectic creed of Akbar Shuja was a Shiah Aurangzebe a bigotted Sonnite 1 Aurangzebe ultimately deposed his father he put his brother Dara to death as an apostate he restored the capitation tax and the lunar year he excluded Hindoos from office he acted in short as a perfect Moslem bigot He had his reward in the revolt of the noble Rajpoots and in the growth of the indomitable Mahrattas He reigned from 1658 to 1707 his forty nine years may be set against the forty nine of Akbar The history of these Mogul Emperors shows to my mind most plainly the essential intolerance of the Mahometan religion Only one Mahometan prince ever gave full and perfect religious equality to all his people By a logical consequence he deserted the religion against whose precepts his noblest acts were so many sins Here and there a King like Abbas had laboured to secure his infidel subjects from actual personal oppression but Akbar stands alone in thoroughly relieving them from every mark of degradation or inferiority Among all the benefactors of their species few can claim a more honourable place than this most illustrious Emperor In his own age he stood alone 2 not only in Islam but in the whole world Catholic and Protestant Christendom 1 Elplinstone ii 416 William the
