The History Of Lady Sophie Sternheim Womens Classics:

Great Books by German Women in the Age of Emotion, 1770-1820 Margaretmary Daley, 2022 Literature written by women in German during the period long known patriarchally as the Age of Goethe was largely lumped in with other unserious or artistically unworthy works under the category Trivialliteratur literally trivial literature Using insights from Gender Studies yet acknowledging the need for a literary canon Great Books by German Women offers a critical interpretation of six canon worthy German novels written by women in the period for which it coins the term Age of Emotion The novels are chosen because they depict women s ordinary yet interesting lives and equally because each displays formal strengths that yield prose particularly able to express emotion The first Sophie von La Roche s Die Geschichte des Fräuleins von Sternheim The History of Lady von Sternheim draws on the tradition of the epistolary novel while also finding new ways to depict empathetic emotions The second Friederike Unger s Julchen Grunthal brings to the Frauenroman or women s novel the use of irony to portray a heroine s emotions during her coming of age The next novels add lyricism to their prose to capture sensual emotions Sophie Mereau s Blütenalter der Empfindung The Blossoming of Feeling imagines women s affinity for the philosophical sublime while Caroline Wolzogen depicts female desire in her Agnes von Lilien The fifth novel Die Honigmonathe The Honeymoon by Karoline Fischer explores the agony that extreme emotions cause not only for women but also for men The last novel Caroline Pichler s Frauenwürde The Dignity of Women expands the focus from a young heroine to multiple mature characters while maintaining the centrality of women s talents and emotions Finally this study accords honorable mention to some other women s novels before concluding that the influence of these six works was in no way trivial either in portraying women s lives and emotions or in the history of German literature

Amalia Holst: On the Vocation of Woman to Higher Intellectual Education Andrew Cooper, 2023-07-18 This edition offers the first English translation of Amalia Holst s daring book On the Vocation of Woman to Higher Intellectual Education 1802 In one of the first works of German philosophy published under a woman s name Holst presents a manifesto for women s education that centres on a basic provocation as far as the mind is concerned women are equal partakers in the project of Enlightenment and should thus have unfettered access to the sciences in general and to philosophy in particular Holst s manifesto resonates with the work of several women writers across Europe including Olympe de Gouges Mary Wollstonecraft and Germaine de Staël Yet in contrast to the early works of feminism we celebrate today her book had little success Its reception confronts us with a darker side of the German Enlightenment that until recently has been neglected Holst sought to unearth the gendered nature of the fundamental concepts of the Enlightenment including vocation education and culture which enabled men to establish the subordinate status of women by philosophical means However her argument was scorned by male reviewers who denied the very possibility of a woman philosopher With an introduction by Andrew Cooper and translations of biographical material and early reviews this edition provides students and scholars of German philosophy with a timely resource for developing a richer understanding of their field and general readers with a powerful early feminist text that reveals the opportunities and difficulties facing women philosophers at the turn of the nineteenth century The History of Lady Sophia Sternheim
