The Hollow Madonna :

The Hollow Madonna Francesca Guli, 1976-01-01 Madonnaland Alina Simone, 2016-03-01 When Alina Simone agreed to write a book about Madonna she thought it might provide an interesting excuse to indulge her own eighties nostalgia. What Simone discovered instead was a tidal wave of already published information about Madonna and her own ambivalence about maybe even jealousy of the Material Girl's overwhelming commercial success. With the straight ahead course stymied, Simone set off on a quirky detour through the backroads of celebrity and fandom and the people who love or loathe Madonna. In this witty, sometimes acerbic, always perceptive chronicle, Simone begins by trying to understand why Madonna's birthplace, Bay City, Michigan, won't even put up a sign to celebrate its most famous citizen and ends by asking why local bands who make music that's authentic and true can disappear with barely a trace. In between, she ranges from Madonna fans who cover themselves with tattoos of the singer's face and try to make fortunes off selling her used bustiers and dresses to Question Mark and the Mysterians, one-hit wonders best known for "96 Tears" and "Flying Wedge," a Detroit band that dropped off an amazing two-track record in the office of CREEM magazine in 1972 and vanished until Simone tracked it down. Filled with fresh insights about the music business, fandom, and what it takes to become a superstar, Madonnaland is as much a book for people who like Simone (prefer dark rooms, coffee, and state-subsidized European films filled with existential despair) as it is for people who can't get enough of Madonna.

Breaking Resemblance Alena Alexandrova, 2017-05-01 In recent decades, curators and artists have shown a distinct interest in religion, its different traditions, manifestations in public life, gestures, and images. Breaking Resemblance explores the complex relationship between contemporary art and religion by focusing on the ways artists re-work religious motifs as a means to reflect critically on our desire to believe in images, on the history of seeing them, and on their double power: iconic and political. It discusses a number of exhibitions that take religion as their central theme and a selection of works by Bill Viola, Lawrence Malstaf, Victoria Reynolds, and Berlinde de Bruyckere, all of whom, in their respective ways, and media recycle religious motifs and iconography and whose works resonate with or problematize the motif of the true image.
