New International Version      The Anglican Pulpit Library ,1900      Hope in Times of Fear Timothy Keller,2021-03-04 The resurrection of Jesus is at the heart of the Christian faith bringing God's power which will some day heal and renew the world into our lives now That power is here only partially but substantially and this gives Christians a realistic but irrepressible hope It is a hope for change in our lives and in our society a hope that changes Christians in every way shaping every aspect of our lives But it is only together with the cross that we see the particular way resurrection hope shapes us We are delivered by a Saviour who triumphed through weakness and loss who came to riches through becoming poor and to exalted life through the experience of death And having coming to new life by admitting our own weakness and inability to save ourselves we live the rest of our lives according to this pattern the way up is to go down the way to true power and influence is to serve the way to be truly rich is to give all we have the way to real happiness is to work for the happiness of others Hope in Times of Fear unlocks the meaning of both the cross and Jesus resurrection Here the central message of the Christian faith is revealed with unshakable belief piercing insight and a profound message of hope for the world      The Hope of Easter (Pack Of 25) Good News Tracts,2015-01-31 An Easter adaptation of the effective gospel presentation Steps to Peace with God

The Hope of Easter Bill Donahue,2010-02-04 Easter is exciting We build up to it for weeks We schedule family gatherings around it We dress up for it We celebrate Easter because it signals new life new hope In this little book you ll find the source of that new life Jesus extending to us the hope of Easter You ll see that on the far side of Easter is a freedom that exceeds our expectations And you ll discover that the source of that freedom is an act of extreme forgiveness that has the power to change everything      Paul and the Parousia Joseph Plevnik,2014-04-23 Surprisingly there has never been a comprehensive exegetical study in English of Saint Paul's view of the second coming or Parousia of Christ In this methodical analysis Joseph

Plevnik brings nearly three decades of research to bear on the question of Paul's understanding of this most central tenet of the whole Christ event. With careful attention to the concepts and terms underlying the notion of the Lord's coming, Plevnik examines the key Pauline texts such as 1 Thess 5:1-11 and 1 Cor 15:23-28. Plevnik then constructs a viable theological interpretation of the great Christian hope, including the language of hope, Christ's parousia, and judgment, conflict at Christ's return, the place of the church, and Paul's apocalyptic theology. This volume will be indispensable for any study of Pauline theology, the Parousia, the theology of hope, and apocalypticism. It is my hope that the book will be not only a scholarly contribution on the topic but also of some personal value to the reader and to the preacher. It may provide a timely reading at the close of the second millennium. The times and seasons, however, are not for us to determine, but a proper preparedness for the Lord's coming is the message of the New Testament and of Paul in particular. If the Lord's coming may no longer be said to be near, it can still be desired. Marana tha. Preface The Churchman, 1885 Television Specials Vincent Terrace, 2013-07-03. This is a complete revision of the author's 1993 McFarland book Television Specials that not only updates entries contained within that edition but adds numerous programs not previously covered, including beauty pageants, parades, awards programs, Broadway and opera adaptations, musicals produced especially for television, holiday specials (e.g., Christmas and New Year's Eve), the early 1936-1947 experimental specials, honors specials. In short, this is a reference work to 5,336 programs, the most complete source for television specials ever published.
