The New Politics Of Financing Un:

The New Politics of the Welfare State Paul Pierson, 2001-04-05 The welfare states of the affluent democracies now stand at the centre of political discussion and social conflict In these path breaking essays an international team of leading analysts rejects simplistic claims about the impact of economic globalization Economic demographic and social pressures on the welfare state are very real but many of the most fundamental challenges have little to do with globalization Nor do the authors detect signs of a convergence of national social policies towards an American style lowest common denominator The contemporary politics of the welfare state takes shape against a backdrop of both intense pressures for austerity and enduring popularity Thus in most of the affluent democracies the politics of social policy centre on the renegotiation restructuring and modernization of the post war social contract rather than its dismantling The authors examine a wide range of countries and public policies arenas including health care pensions and labour markets They demonstrate how different national settings affect whether and on what terms centrist efforts to restructure the welfare state can succeed

The New Politics of Financing the UN Anthony McDermott, 2016-07-27 The UN has suffered from its earliest days as a result of persistent financial problems which left it on the edge of apparent bankruptcy This book looks at the history of the regular and peace keeping budgets It focuses on the role of the US simultaneously the UN's biggest contributor of funds and its largest debtor It examines possible solutions against the background today of the UN attempting to reform itself to meet the challenges posed by globalization and an increasing number of civil wars

The New Politics of Energy Security in the European Union and Beyond Andrea Prontera, 2017-05-18 Combining theoretical reflections and empirical insights from paradigmatic case studies in the area of external energy governance pipeline politics Liquefied Natural Gas development and offshore petroleum policy and politics this ground breaking study demonstrates that a distinctive and new politics of energy security is definitively emerging in the European Union Innovative not only in regard to the case studies presented which include the Caspian region the Baltic Mediterranean countries Central Asia and EU Russia relations but also in regard to the analytical framework adopted an International Political Economy approach informed by an historical institutional perspective the book challenges the common view of the depoliticisation of energy security supported by the mainstream market approach and the power politics and zero sum game view supported by the geopolitical perspective This book places the study of EU energy politics in the broader evolving context of global energy markets and explores the complex interactions between EU and national political dynamics and between energy security and environmental concerns at the local level

The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel, Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis, Antje Dietze, Thomas Plötze, 2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa
