

A fashion video still featuring two women. On the left, a woman with long brown hair and black-rimmed glasses is partially visible, wearing a voluminous, light pink, feathery or fur-like garment. On the right, a woman with dark curly hair and dark sunglasses is seated in a yellow director's chair. She is wearing a dark green leather jacket over a white shirt, a chunky gold chain necklace, and a large ring. She is holding a cigarette in her right hand. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

The New Woman:

The New Woman Sally Ledger, 1997 By comparing fictional representations with real New Women in late Victorian Britain Sally Ledger makes a major contribution to an understanding of the Woman Question at the end of the century Chapters on imperialism socialism sexual decadence and metropolitan life situate the revolting daughters of the Victorian age in a broader cultural context than previous studies The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman's film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman's film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman's film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion's Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013 The New Woman Ainslie Meares, 1974 Female Identity in the Late 19th and Early 20th Century in Virginia Woolf's "Mrs. Dalloway" and Angela Carter's "Nights at the Circus" Marie Will, 2023-06-30 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.0 Nottingham Trent University Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Culture and Anarchy language English abstract In this essay I aim to compare Woolf's and Carter's take on the female identity as shown in their work I will focus on the novels Mrs Dalloway and Nights at the Circus respectively and their female characters The fight for female equality experienced a high during the turn of the 19th to 20th century It was defined by the suffragette movement that gained the voting right for women in 1928 However it all started in the 1890s when the term New Women was introduced by the American novelists Sarah Grand and Ouida In a pair of articles published in the North American Review the writers laid focus on the independent and educated woman that was not merely an object of desire for men and a means for reproduction By the public the term was soon related to social reforms in literature however the New Woman was heavily criticised She was often portrayed as selfish and over educated hence a danger to the male ego Virginia Woolf born in 1882 in Victorian London and one of the few partially recognised female writers of her time experienced the social changes and the adoption of a new view of the woman first hand As a young woman she first came in contact with the women's rights movement in Britain which later influenced her work to a great extent More recently in light of the first and second wave feminism her work has been interpreted as showing early forms of feminist thinking Angela Carter born more than half a century later in 1940 is known for her openly feminist writing that presents familiar stories and themes with a twist on gender and class issues⁶ Her novels and short stories are often set in the past and explore the issues of identity for women from the light of the first and second wave feminism during the 1970s and 1980s
