The Next Reformation Why Evangelicals Must Embrace Postmodernity:

The Next Reformation Carl Raschke, 2004-11 Demonstrates how to reconcile postmodernism with Christian faith

GloboChrist (The Church and Postmodern Culture) Carl Raschke, 2008-08-01 The information age has not only interconnected the world but has also shrunk it This global dynamic impacts Christianity especially the Great Commission How do believers make disciples of all nations in this digital world of religious diversity Carl Raschke author of the acclaimed The Next Reformation answers such questions in GloboChrist He explores the impact of globalization postmodernism and information technology on missions and evangelism as well as the role that Christianity plays in an increasingly pluralistic world In short he helps Christians respond to the tectonic shifts of the twenty first century This third volume in the well received Church and Postmodern Culture series is relevant to students pastors and all who care about the future of the church

Heavenly Participation Hans Boersma, 2011-02 Surveying the barriers that contemporary thinking has erected between the natural and the supernatural between earth and heaven Hans Boersma issues a wake up call for Western Christianity Both Catholics and evangelicals he says have moved too far away from a sacramental mindset focusing more on the here and now than on the then and there Yet as Boersma points out the teaching of Jesus Paul and St Augustine indeed of most of Scripture and the church fathers is profoundly otherworldly much more concerned with heavenly participation than with earthly enjoyment In Heavenly Participation Boersma draws on the wisdom of great Christian minds ancient and modern Irenaeus Gregory of Nyssa C S Lewis Henri de Lubac John Milbank and many others He urges Catholics and evangelicals alike to retrieve a sacramental worldview to cultivate a greater awareness of eternal mysteries to partake eagerly of the divine life that transcends and transforms all earthly realities Hans Boersma makes a superb contribution to evangelical theological reflection in this well designed book and it goes a long way to drawing us back from the brink of a fashionable evangelical tendency to reductive historicism His re situation of the doctrine of the Incarnation in its historic sacramental language and thought opens up the way to a deeper understanding of the truths of faith that evangelicals and Catholics alike seek to comprehend and nurture David Lyle Jeffrey Baylor University Theology at its best says Hans Boersma is less interested in comprehending the truth than in participating in it Skillfully marshalling passages from the church fathers and medieval theologians and drawing judiciously on contemporary evangelical and Catholic thinkers Boersma shows that theology is not primarily an intellectual enterprise but a spiritual discipline by which one enters into the truth and is mastered by it Though this sacramental tapestry as he calls it is as old as the church it is refreshing to have it presented anew in this engaging book Robert Louis Wilken University of Virginia

The Oxford Handbook of Evangelical

Theology Gerald R. McDermott, 2013-12 This volume surveys the state of the discipline on topics of greatest importance to evangelical theology The authors critically assess the state of the question from both classical and evangelical traditions and propose a future direction for evangelical thinking on the subject R sum de l diteur

Consultants & Consulting Organizations Directory Cengage Gale,2009-05-12 A Confessing Theology for Postmodern Times Michael Scott Horton,2000 In a world in which absolute truth values and authority have lost their place the evangelical church needs most of all to be a beacon of truth and light Yet the relativistic mindset of our culture is seeping in pushing aside biblical content to make way for personal experience even in churches that once held firmly to the doctrines of the faith The result a watered down Gospel is having little impact on society or individual lives It is a challenge that must not go unmet In A Confessing Theology for Postmodern Times twelve confessing Christian scholars from various denominational backgrounds provide you with ideas and strategies for rising to that challenge They explore your resources for doing theology in a postmodern world as well as the obstacles and the opportunities it entails There is a crisis of truth in the world This volume is evidence that you can reach out to those who need the life changing message of the Gospel and still hold firm to a systematic biblical theology in postmodern times From book jacket Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker
