The Odds And My God Growing Through Adversity:

The Odds and My God Bennie L. Randle, 1996-08-01 Reconstructing Illness Anne Hunsaker Hawkins, 1999 Serious illness and mortality those most universal unavoidable and frightening of human experiences are the focus of this pioneering study which has been hailed as a telling and provocative commentary on our times As modern medicine has become more scientific and dispassionate a new literary genre has emerged pathography the personal narrative concerning illness treatment and sometimes death Hawkins s sensitive reading of numerous pathographies highlights the assumptions attitudes and myths that people bring to the medical encounter One factor emerges again and again in these case studies the tendency in contemporary medical practice to focus primarily not on the needs of the individual who is sick but on the condition that we call disease Pathography allows the individual person a voice one that asserts the importance of the experiential side of illness and thus restores the feeling thinking experiencing human being to the center of the medical enterprise Recommended for medical practitioners the clergy caregivers students of popular culture and the general reader Reconstructing Illness demonstrates that only when we hear both the doctor s and the patient s voice will we have a medicine that is truly human Jim Londos Steven Johnson, 2024-12-18 The most famous active athlete in the world during the Great Depression was not Babe Ruth Sonja Henie or Babe Didrikson It was a determined Greek immigrant who sailed across the Atlantic Ocean as a 15 year old to escape a demanding father and start a life abroad Jim Londos slept in railcars and firehouses to make ends meet and quickly found refuge on the mat Combining an Old World work ethic with a flair for the dramatic Londos overcame skeptics and antagonists to become pro wrestling s greatest star an international celebrity who walked with presidents prime ministers and the common man He was responsible for keeping wrestling alive during the Depression and representing achievement to ethnic minorities underdogs and women all of whom he attracted in record numbers This complete biography of Jim Londos tells the story of the first great immigrant athlete a man who rescued the soiled sport of wrestling when it was down for the count and brought hope and inspiration to his countrymen and millions worldwide Food for Thought Rev. Dr. Darlington I. I. Ndubuike, 2025-09-15 Food for Thought began with a playful question What if food could speak Not with words but through memory meaning and metaphor What if a kiwi could whisper Can we inviting possibility What if a prune reminded us of the grace in letting go or a peach encouraged us to pitch our ideas with courage From that question grew a banquet of 70 meditative reflections where everyday ingredients became vessels of insight Grounded in biblical truth and seasoned with spiritual wisdom this book invites readers to slow down and savor not just their meals but their lives It s not a cookbook though it may feed you It s not a manual though it may guide you It s a table set with stories symbols and soul each bite offering a mirror to what s within We ve peeled onions of meaning heard the pitch of a peach the reason in a raisin and the rise in rice Even the humble beet and cabbage carry stories of grace and transformation In a world of fast answers and loud voices Food for Thought is an invitation to pause reflect and listen to the quiet wisdom simmering in the ordinary As you close this book may your meals become moments of mindfulness your table a place of transformation and your life full of flavor meaning and grace And one last thing If this Food nourished you give thanks to the Master Chef who prepared it not the waiter who served it Blessed in the Darkness Joel Osteen,2017-10-24 Find comfort in dark times and grow your trust and faith in God with this inspiring and insightful guide from Lakewood Church pastor and 1 New York Times bestselling author Joel Osteen All of us will go through dark times that we don't understand a difficulty with a friend an unfair situation at work a financial setback an unexpected illness a divorce or the loss of a loved one Those types of experiences are part of the human journey But when we find ourselves in such a place it's important that we keep a positive perspective Joel Osteen writes that if we stay in faith and keep a good attitude when we go through challenges we will not only grow but we will see how all things work together for our good Through practical applications and scriptural insight Blessed in the Darkness focuses on how to draw closer to God and trust Him when life doesn't make sense If we will go through the dark place in the valley trusting believing and knowing that God is still in control we will come to the table that is already prepared for us where our cup runs over Seeds of Greatness Sown in the Heartland Peter H. Zindler,2005-11-20 Whatever your circumstances are wherever you find yourself in this life don't ever think that your Father in heaven has shortchanged you You have been created in His image and He has thoughtfully and purposely deposited in your heart the talents for true greatness in this life and the life to come Decide today that this day you will do something out of pure kindness for someone else without seeking any reward Seeds of Greatness will open the door of our heart to the gifts and abilities that God planted when He formed you in your mother's womb It will further define what greatness truly is and it isn't spiking a football in the end zone and then signing the goal post with a marker Author Peter Zindler offers heartwarming examples of the greatness of God in an ordinary man's life a man who has dared to go against the world's opinion and will follow God wherever He leads him As you read Seeds of Greatness you'll step into a corridor of truth that promises to take you to a new level East London tabernacle pulpit, sermons preached by Archibald Brown Archibald Geikie Brown,1873 East London Tabernacle Pulpit Sermons Preached by Archibald Brown by Archibald Brown Geikie first published in 1873 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it Sermons preached at Stepney Green Tabernacle ... 1868-9 Archibald Geikie Brown,1870 The Homiletic Review ,1892 Homiletic Review ,1892

Henry Donald Maurice Spence-Jones, 1883 International Journal of Religious Education , 1939 Appletons' Journal , 1878 Christian Register and Boston Observer... , 1886 The Ladies' Repository , 1874

The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion. Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews. Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr. By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits. When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000. Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family. After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository. The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart. Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own.
