Soft Box Poems:

Soft Box Celia Bland, 2004 This poet writes like a woman with a mission Her collection resounds with an honesty that is at once brutal and determined You will not go hungry into a strange soil she writes to her jaundiced infant Bland browbeats her way through a sort of autobiography The characters primarily family mother father stepfather husband children dead and alive Held fast by neat lines and stanzas these poems batter on concepts such as the connection between sex and death Soft Box speaks for itself and does not speak softly Bland writes like a woman possessed and the result is bewitching ForeWord Magazine

Visual Poetry Chris Orwig, 2009-08-21 A great photograph has the potential to transcend verbal and written language But how do you create these photographs It s not the how that s important but the who and the what Who you are as a person has a direct impact on what you capture as a photographer Whether you are an amateur or professional architect or acupuncturist physician or photographer this guide provides inspiration simple techniques and assignments to boost your creative process and improve your digital images using natural light without additional gear Chris Orwig s insights to reduce and simplify participate rather than critique and capture a story have made him an immensely popular workshop speaker and faculty member at the prestigious Brooks Institute His engaging stories presented as lessons follow his classroom approach and highlight what students say is his contagious passion for life In this accessible and beautifully illustrated four color guide you will Discover visual poetry in the creative process Use less to say more with your subject matter Learn to see light color shape and expression Understand what gear is essential Create compelling portraits Make lasting memories of your family and kids Capture the outdoors and adventure Begin the transition from amateur to professional Chris also includes exclusive interviews with such photographers as Steve McCurry Chris Rainier John Sexton Rodney Smith Joyce Tenneson John Paul Caponigro Marc Riboud and Pete Turner Share your work with the author and other readers at www.flickr.com/groups/visualpoet/ and visit the Web site www.visualpoet.com

Jane Cooper Martha Collins, Celia Bland, 2019-03-29 For her five volumes of poetry over the course of her career Jane Cooper 1924 2007 was deeply admired by her contemporaries and teaching at Sarah Lawrence College for nearly forty years she served as a mentor to many aspiring poets Her elegant honest and emotionally and formally precise poems often addressing the challenges of women s lives especially the lives of women in the arts continue to resonate with a new generation of readers Martha Collins and Celia Bland bring together several decades worth of essential writing on Cooper s poetry While some pieces offer close examination of Cooper s process or thoughtful consideration of the craft of a single poem the volume also features reviews of her collections including a previously unpublished piece on her first book The Weather of Six Mornings 1969 by James Wright a lifelong champion of her work Marie Howe Jan Heller Levi and Thomas Lux among others share personal remembrances of Cooper as a teacher colleague and inspiration L R Berger s moving tribute to Cooper s final days closes the volume This book has much to offer for both readers who already love Cooper s work and new readers especially among younger poets just discovering her enduring
