Postcards from the Ledge Greg Child,2012-10-02 Reflections and humorous pieces plus insights into some of mountaineering s more controversial events Revealing portraits of other Himalayan climbers Peeling back the layers to reveal the gritty truth about the elite climbing world is Greg Child s specialty With clever wit sharp observations and insightful reflections Child s writing covers the full spectrum of the mountaineering experience Entertaining even to those who have never been above sea level Child s stories reveal climbing s other face His description of the daily habits of mountaineers on expedition who don t bathe for months is both disgusting and horrifyingly funny A post climb fiasco in the offices of petty Pakistani bureaucrats proves that not all epics take place on high mountain faces Falling of a rock climb in front of his mother is an exercise in humility Child takes up climbing controversy with the same keen insight His investigation of Tomo Cesen s claimed first ascent of Lhotse s south wall is considered the definitive report on this controversial event A hard look at the media frenzy around the death of Alison Hargreaves on K2 evolves into a brilliant impassioned defense of a friend He also speaks out on the money and media driven expeditions that now crowd Everest But Child never preaches Whether contrasting his clumsy performance with Lynn Hill s elegant moves on a climb in the remote mountains of Kyrgyzstan or reflecting upon artifacts from crucifixes to pink flamingos that decorate the world s highest peaks he writes it as he sees it with a dose of wit A true insider Greg Child draws us deep into the world of climbing but never denies its dark side
