The Masada Plan Leonard Harris, 1976 The Masada Plan Leonard Harris, 1978 Management Planning for Archaeological Sites Jeanne Marie Teutonico, Gaetano Palumbo, Getty Conservation Institute, Loyola Marymount University, 2002 This volume reports on the proceedings of a workshop held in Greece near the ancient site of Corinth to discuss challenges faced by archaeological sites in the Mediterranean and to examine management planning methods that might generate effective conservation strategies FCC Record United States. Sacred Suicide Carole M. Cusack, 2016-04-08 The label Suicide Cults has been applied to a wide variety of different alternative religions from Jonestown to the Solar Temple to Heaven's Gate. Additionally, observers have asked if such group suicides are in any way comparable to Islamist suicide terrorism or to historical incidents of mass suicide such as the mass suicide of the ancient community of Masada. Organizationally and ideologically diverse, it turns out that the primary shared trait of these various groups is a common stereotype of religion as an irrational force that pushes fanatics to undertake acts of suicidal violence. Offering a valuable perspective on New Religious Movements and on religion and violence, Sacred Suicide brings together contributions from a diverse range of international scholars of sociology, religious studies, and criminology.

Binder, 1999 Binder explores both the Jewish congregations and the buildings they met in throughout the Middle East from the late sixth century BCE and the earliest known synagogue at the time of his writing to 70 CE, which marks the cessation of the Temple cult, the abrupt termination of the high priestly hegemony that had mostly administered affairs in Palestine since the end of the Babylonian exile, and a major change in Jewish worship and community life throughout the Roman Empire. A companion website provides new information such as Ehud Netzer's March 1998 discovery of what may be the oldest synagogue yet.
