The Compassionate God Choan-Seng Song, Considering Compassion Frits de Lange, L. Juliana Claassens, 2018-09-17 In light of the numerous challenges posed by globalization living together as humanity on one planet needs to be reinvented in the twenty first century To create a new peaceful just and sustainable world order is vital to the survival of us all In this regard humankind will have to expand the limited scope of its moral imagination beyond the borders of family tribe class religion nation and culture Will the cultivation of compassion as scholars like Martha Nussbaum and Karen Armstrong and religious leaders like the Dalai Lama maintain contribute to a more just world A global movement to cultivate and extend compassion beyond the immediate circle of concern may indeed find inspiration from many different religious traditions The question at the heart of this book is whether the Christian legacy provides us with sources of moral imagination needed to guide us into the global era Can the Christian practice of faith contribute to a more compassionate world If so how And is it true that compassion is what we need or do we need something else justice for example In Considering Compassion colleagues from different theological disciplines at Stellenbosch South Africa and Groningen Netherlands take up these challenging questions from a variety of interdisciplinary angles The Compassionate God Samson Adedokun, 2010-11 Interpreting the book of Hebrews presents many challenges for the modern reader One reason for this is that the letter represents only part of a dialogue between an unknown writer and a group of Jewish Christians To truly understand its content requires carefully searching for clues and uncovering background information on Old Testament symbols and rituals that would have been apparent to the author's readers In The Compassionate God internationally acclaimed preacher and Bible teacher Samson A Adedokun delves into the complexities of the text to unravel its meaning for the modern reader He examines the coherency of the author's arguments as a theology of worship and shows how the letter was intended as both a challenge and encouragement to believers to persevere for Christ He also examines questions such as What gives Christ the right to cleanse people from sin In what way is Christ superior to the angels What does it mean to become apostate If the Old Covenant focused on law what does the New Covenant focus on What are the three requirements of faith What is unique about the cleansing that comes from Jesus Christ's sacrifice How are Christians to respond to those who rule over them What are Christians exhorted to do for their leaders In addition to the answers to these questions you will discover insight and understanding that will help you to have a transformational life as a member of the kingdom of God

Prayer and Devotional Life of United Methodists Steve Harper, 2013-01-15 This volume in the United Methodist Studies series challenges United Methodists to engage in life transforming practices The author explains a theme and underscores major emphases within the United Methodist denomination This adult study is divided into four sections with suggestions for group discussion and can be completed in 4 to 8 sessions No leader's guide is needed The sections are 1 Living from the Heart This chapter examines the essence of prayer and devotional life for United Methodists holiness of heart and life The chapter is divided into two sections to enable this examination Cimmunion heart and Compassion life 2 Read and Pray Daily Exploring these two central disciplines in Christian formation and the Wesleyan Tradition guides readers into practical expressions of what it means to read devotionally lection divina and pray continually the life of prayer 3 Get Connected The idea of connectionalism is a significant part of our tradition This chapter examines this idea from two vantage points of classic formation principles and the concrete structures Wesley used in early Methodism which still contain implications for today 4 Go On The cultivation of prayer and devotional life in United Methodism is not about attainment but rather about journey This chapter examines the pilgrimage motif through the two lenses of the biblical doctrine of Christian perfection and the practical development of that message through an action reflection model of Christian formation

Belhar Confession Mary-Anne Plaatjies-Van Huffel, 2017-12-12 e The subject of the Belhar Confession is an academic one which has enjoyed international attention with congregations in the West having adopted it as one of their confessions for use The content of this book is aimed chiefly at a scholarly community with ample knowledge of confessional documents and is a contribution on the subject of the Belhar Confession The current challenges to the church and theology are discussed Racism is one issue that poses an increasingly huge challenge to South Africa today The book demonstrates what needs to be done extra to deal with the scourge of racism that seems to have percolated through virtually all aspects of our existence and particularly the church today in South Africa e Prof Rothney Tshaka University of South Africa A Concordance of the Qur'an Hanna E. Kassis, 2023-11-03 From the Foreword This Concordance of the Qur'an in English satisfies a paramount need of those and there are millions of them who have no command of the Arabic language and yet desire to understand the Qur'an The benefit derivable from English translations of the Sacred Book is in principle limited because first the Qur'an is not a book but a collection of passages revealed to Muhammad over a period of about twenty three years and second because the Qur'an is not really translatable This does not mean that the Qur'an should not be translated It does mean that translations lose much in tone and nuance let alone the incommunicable beauty grandeur and grace of the original The main distinction of Hana Kassis's concordance in my view is that it utilizes the semantic structure of Arabic vocabulary itself in revealing the meaning of the Qur'an on any given issue point or concept A reader who looks in the index of this concordance for a word which he has encountered in reading an English translation of the Qur'an the word pride for example is directed immediately to the roots of the Arabic Qur'anic terms for pride At the entries for these Arabic roots all the derivative forms are shown and the verses of the Qur'an in which they appear are there listed in translation I am confident that any person who is sincerely interested in understanding the Qur'an and appreciating the nuances of its diction and shades of its meaning can satisfy his need more fully with this book than in any way short of developing a real command over the Arabic language itself Fazlur Rahman Professor of Islamic Thought University of Chicago From the Foreword This Concordance of the Qur'an in English satisfies a paramount need of those and there are millions of them who have no command of the Arabic language and yet desire to understand the Qur'an The benefit derivab      The Academy ,1880      The Compassionate God Choan-Seng Song,1982 Already well known for his Third Eye Theology Dr Song here concerns himself with the question of Christianity in a pluralistic world For many believers what Christianity is and what it stands for culturally and spiritually are so different from other cultures and religions that it cannot project itself into them Christianity is Christianity it is not Hinduism or Buddhism Communication between one and the other at the human level is not possible However there is another kind of theology one capable of transposition This kind crosses the boundaries of cultures religions and histories in order to have deeper contacts with the strange and mysterious ways and thoughts of God in his creation It calls for a sensitivity that can respond creatively to vibrations coming from the depth of the human spirit outside the familiar realm of everyday life It requires from us largeness of heart and mind to realize the meanings that at first appear alien to our religious consciousness Asia with its great diversity of religions and cultures its large number of nations and peoples whose spiritual heritages are at once their despair and their hope invites us to such a theological adventure Where it leads is for the reader to discover
