The Construction Act Frances A. Paterson, Philip Britton, 2000      Residential Construction Law Philip Britton, Matthew Bell, Deirdre Ní Fhloinn, Kim Vernau, 2021-07-15 This is the first book to offer a systematic and analytical overview of the legal framework for residential construction In doing so the book addresses two fundamental questions Prevention What assurances can the law give buyers and later owners and occupiers of homes that construction work from building of a complete home to adding an extension or replacing a shower unit will comply with minimum standards of design safety and build quality Cure What forms of redress from whom and by what route can residents expect when often long after completion of construction they discover defects The resulting problems pose some big and difficult questions of principle and policy about standards rights and remedies which in turn concern justice more generally This book addresses these key issues in a comparative context across the United Kingdom Ireland Australia and New Zealand It is an accessible guide to the existing law for residents and construction professionals and their legal advisers but also charts a course to further meaningful reforms of the legal landscape for residential construction around the world The book s two co authors Philip Britton and Matthew Bell have taught in the field in the UK Australia and New Zealand both have been active in legal practice as have the book s two specialist contributors Deirdre Ní Fhloinn and Kim Vernau      Smith, Currie and Hancock's Common Sense Construction Law Thomas J.
