The Humanization of Socialism Andras Hegedus, Agnes Heller, Maria Markus, Mihaly Vajda, 1977-04      The Humanisation of Socialism András Hegedüs, 1976      Agnes Heller and the Budapest School Joan Nordquist, 2000

Each bibliography includes a comprehensive list of the theorist's works and critical studies of these works in English. Each bibliography contains approximately 600 to 900 entries: Books, journal articles, essays within edited books, in the manner of Essay and General Literature, and dissertations are included. References are provided from a wide variety of disciplines and bibliographic sources. The primary purpose of each bibliography is to provide access to the widely reprinted primary works in English and the critical literature in a great variety of books and journals. The topical bibliographies include the authoritative works on the subject and are arranged in useful categories. The lively part of the modern post-modern debate is generally taking place in alternative and left journals, journals always included in the literature search in the compiling of the bibliographies.

Agnes Heller John Grumley, 2004-12-20 Agnes Heller is one of the leading thinkers to come out of the tradition of critical theory. Her awesome intellectual range and output includes ethics, philosophical anthropology, political philosophy, and a theory of modernity and its culture. Hungarian by birth, she was one of the best-known dissident Marxists in central Europe in the 1960s and 1970s. Since her forced immigration, she has held visiting lectureships all over the world and has been the Hannah Arendt Professor of Philosophy at the New School in New York for the last twenty years. This introduction to her thought is ideal for all students of philosophy, political theory, and sociology. Grumley explores Heller's early work elaborating her relation to Lukács and the evolution of her own version of Marxism. He examines the subsequent break with Marxism and the initial development of an alternative radical philosophy. Finally, he explains and assesses her mature reflective post-modernism, a perspective that is both sceptical and utopian, that upholds a critical humanist perspective just as it critiques contemporary democratic culture.

Volume 3: Philosophy of Action Guttorm Fløistad, 1983-01-31 Half title International Institute of Philosophy Institut international de philosophie      Philosophie de l'action Guttorm Fløistad, 1986 This publication is a continuation of two earlier series of chronicles: Philosophy in the Mid-Century (Firenze 1958-59) and Contemporary Philosophy (Firenze 1968) edited by Raymond Klibansky. Like the other series, these chronicles provide a survey of important trends in contemporary philosophical discussion from 1966 to 1978. The need for such surveys has, I believe, increased rather than decreased over the last years. The philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before. The continuing process of specialization in most branches, the emergence of new schools of thought, particularly in philosophical logic and the philosophy of language, the convergence of interest, though not necessarily of opinion, of different traditions upon certain problems, and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributory factors. Surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity and may as such be an assistance in renewing the understanding.

of one's own philosophical problems The surveys it is to be hoped may also help to strengthen the Socratic element of modern philosophy the dialogue or Kommunikationsgemeinschaft So far four volumes have been prepared for the new series The present chronicles in Philosophy of Action Vol 3 follow upon chronicles in the Philosophy of Language and Philosophical Logic V 01 1 and chronicles in the Philosophy of Science Vol

Modern European Socialism Lawrence Wilde, 1994 Is there a future for socialism in Europe The collapse of the communist dictatorships and the electoral reverses suffered by social democratic parties have called into question the whole historical project of challenging the power of capitalism Modern European Socialism examines social democratic and communist responses to the immense changes which have occurred in the world economy since the collapse of the post war boom The power of global capital to dictate the conditions for investment has made it virtually impossible to promote egalitarian policies at the level of the nation state However Wilde argues that socialism can renew its relevance at a European level if the process of economic integration culminates in a fully fledged European state
