The Notebooks 1945-1950:

The notebooks 1945-1950 Maria Valtorta, 2002 The North Korean Revolution, 1945-1950 Charles K. Armstrong, 2013-05-15 North Korea despite a shattered economy and a populace suffering from widespread hunger has outlived repeated forecasts of its imminent demise Charles K Armstrong contends that a major source of North Korea's strength and resiliency as well as of its flaws and shortcomings lies in the poorly understood origins of its system of government He examines the genesis of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea DPRK both as an important yet rarely studied example of a communist state and as part of modern Korean history North Korea is one of the last redoubts of unreformed Marxism Leninism in the world Yet it is not a Soviet satellite in the East European manner nor is its government the result of a local revolution as in Cuba and Vietnam Instead the DPRK represents a unique indigenization of Soviet Stalinism Armstrong finds The system that formed under the umbrella of the Soviet occupation quickly developed into a nationalist regime as programs initiated from above merged with distinctive local conditions Armstrong's account is based on long classified documents captured by U S forces during the Korean War This enormous archive of over 1.6 million pages provides unprecedented insight into the making of the Pyongyang regime and fuels the author's argument that the North Korean state is likely to remain viable for some years to come Everyday Life in the North Korean Revolution, 1945-1950 Suzy Kim, 2013-08-09 During the founding of North Korea competing visions of an ideal modern state proliferated Independence and democracy were touted by all but plans for the future of North Korea differed in their ideas about how everyday life should be organized Daily life came under scrutiny as the primary arena for social change in public and private life In Everyday Life in the North Korean Revolution 1945-1950 Kim examines the revolutionary events that shaped people's lives in the development of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea By shifting the historical focus from the state and the Great Leader to how villagers experienced social revolution Kim offers new insights into why North Korea insists on setting its own course Kim's innovative use of documents seized by U S military forces during the Korean War and now stored in the National Archives personnel files autobiographies minutes of organizational meetings educational materials women's magazines and court documents together with oral histories allows her to present the first social history of North Korea during its formative years In an account that makes clear the leading role of women in these efforts Kim examines how villagers experienced understood and later remembered such events as the first land reform and modern elections in Korea's history as well as practices in literacy schools communal halls mass organizations and study sessions that transformed daily routine The Novel, 1945-1950 Percy Howard Newby, 1951 Poetry, 1945-1950 Alan Ross, 1978 Hans Hartung, 1945-1950 Anne Wheeler Williamson, 1977 United States Policy Toward East Asia, 1945-1950, 1989 Radical Politics in Nigeria, 1945-1950 Ehiedu Emmanuel Goodluck Iweriebor, 1996 Architecture, 1985 North Korean State Formation, 1945-1950 Hak Soon Paik, 1993 Notebook for Florida Legislators Florida State University.
