Children, Adolescents, and Media Dafna

Lemish,Amy Jordan,Vicky Rideout,2018-10-11 Bringing together the leading researchers on children adolescents and the media this books offers their cutting edge big picture ideas for the future of research and scholarship in the field Individual chapters focus on topics such as the role of big data in media research digital literacy parenting in the era of mobile media media diversity in the digital age the impact of media on child development children s digital rights the implications of intelligent characters and parasocial relationships and the effectiveness of transmedia for informal education Several chapters also explore the theoretical and methodological challenges facing children s media researchers Offering new directions for research the contributors consider the implications of the changing media landscape for parents educators advocates and producers Leading scholars from North America Europe and Asia grounded in different theoretical and methodological traditions join forces to discuss the impact of growing up in a media saturated world and to stimulate thinking about the field of children and media in unexpected ways This book was originally published as two special issues of the Journal of Children and Media

Parenting Through Pop Culture JL Schatz,2020-03-19 With the ever increasing amount of media children are consuming it has become important for parents to learn how to help them navigate this consumption productively All too often the only approach to screen time by parents is a question of limiting how much and what kind

Instead if parents and educators can adopt a more nuanced relationship to media and education adults and children can come together in order to engage with and deconstruct the messages that are embedded in popular culture This enables children to become more informed citizens This collection seeks to do just that by providing a series of essays on strategies to engage children with varying topics and programming to ensure that media consumption is an active process that promotes social and political awareness instead of apathetic entertainment
