Roman Love Elegy and the Eros of Empire Phebe Lowell Bowditch, 2023-05-22 This book explores Roman love elegy from postcolonial perspectives arguing that the tropes conventions and discourses of the Augustan genre serve to reinforce the imperial identity of its elite metropolitan audience Love elegy presents the phenomena and discourses of Roman imperialism in terms of visual spectacle the military triumph literary genre epic in relation to elegy material culture art and luxury goods and geographic space as intersecting with ancient norms of gender and sexuality in a way that reinforces Rome's dominance in the Mediterranean The introductory chapter lays out the postcolonial frame drawing from the work of Edward Said among other theorists and situates love elegy in relation to Roman Hellenism and the varied Roman responses to Greece and its cultural influences Four of the six subsequent chapters focus on the rhetorical ambivalence that characterizes love elegy's treatment of Greek influence the representation of the domina or mistress as simultaneously a figure for captive Greece and a trope for Roman imperialism the motif of the elegiac triumph with varying figures playing the triumphator as suggestive of Greco Roman cultural rivalry Rome's competing visions of an Attic and an Asiatic Hellenism The second and the final chapter focus on the figures of Osiris and Isis respectively as emblematic of Rome's colonialist and ambivalent representation of Egypt with the conclusion offering a deconstructive reading of elegy's rhetoric of orientalism

Needham Bryan Cobb, 1887 Travel, Geography, and Empire in Latin Poetry Micah Young Myers, Erika Zimmeirann Damer, 2021-09-29 This volume considers representations of space and movement in sources ranging from Roman comedy to late antique verse exploring how poetry in the Roman world is fundamentally shaped by its relationship to travel within the geography of Rome's far reaching empire The volume surveys Roman poetics of travel and geography in sources ranging from Plautus to Augustan poetry from the Flavians to Ausonius The chapters offer a range of approaches to the complex relationship between Latin poetry Roman identity imperialism and travel and geospatial narratives and the diachronic and generic evolutions of poetic descriptions of space and mobility In addition two chapters including the concluding one contextualize and respond to the volume's discussion of poetry by looking at ways in which Romans not only write and read poems about travel and geography but also make writing and reading part of the experience of traveling as demonstrated in their epigraphic practices The collection as a whole offers important insights into Roman poetics and into ancient notions of movement and geographical space Travel Geography and Empire in Latin Poetry will be of interest to specialists in Latin poetry ancient travel and Latin epigraphy as well as to those studying travel writing geography imperialism and mobility in other periods The chapters are written to be accessible to researchers graduate students and advanced undergraduates
