The Inner Or Spiritual Body:

Image, Identity, and the Forming of the Augustinian Soul Matthew Drever, 2013-06-03 In our current pluralist context there is no clearly designated means of valuing or defining the human person Matthew Drever shows that in the writings of St Augustine we find a concept of the human person that is fluid tenuous prone to great good and great vice and influenced deeply by the wider spiritual and material environment Through an examination of his account of the human relation to God Drever demonstrates how Augustine can offer a crucial resource for a religious reorientation and revaluation of the human person Drever focuses particularly on the concepts of the imago dei and creatio ex nihilo significant for their influence on Augustine's understanding of the human person and for their potential to bridge his and our own world Though rooted in Augustine's early work these concepts are developed fully in his later writings his Genesis commentaries and On the Trinity in particular Drever examines how in these later writings the origin creatio ex nihilo and identity imago dei of the human person intersect with Augustine's understanding of creation Christ and the Trinity Image Identity and the Forming of the Augustinian Soul constructs an interpretation of Augustine's view of the person that acknowledges its classical context while also addressing contemporary theological and philosophical appropriations of Augustine and the issues that animate them

Heart and Hara Peter Wilberg, 2003 An ancient Daoist saying tells us When you are sick do not seek a cure Find your centre and you will be healed The centre it refers to is located deep in the sensed interiority of our belly that abode of the soul known in Japanese as hara Depression a word with no equivalent in Japanese is in essence a lack of hara With hara awareness we not only recontact our own innermost soul depths and soul centre We learn to make contact with others from that centre to experience true intimacy of soul Hara awareness is both an alternative to medical and psychiatric cures and the basis for a genuinely psychological medicine an anatomy of the soul body Head Heart and Hara contrasts the head and heart centred culture of the West with the hara culture of Japan It also shows how hara awareness can unite the primordial wisdom of both East and West Peter Wilberg brings together the dao of Lao Tse and the logos of Heraclitus in a new spiritual anatomy of the soul and its body

Spirit, Soul, Body

Cyprian Consiglio, 2015 A perennial problem for spiritual traditions of all sorts is dualism either a positing of a false distance between the Divine and the created or a rejection of creation and the human body Many contemporary spiritual seekers have sensed this problem and sought to remedy it through myriad solutions drawn from various spiritual traditions and secular wisdom both Eastern and Western Cyprian Consiglio OSB Cam explores Christianity's contribution to the discussion He offers a revisioning and rearticulation of this teaching based on the
