Monologues for Actors of Color Roberta Uno, 2000 This collection features 45 monologues excerpted from contemporary plays and specially geared for actors of color Robert Uno has carefully selected the monologues so that there is a wide range of ethnicities included African American Native American Latino and Asian American Each monologue comes with an introduction with notes on the characters and stage directions to set the scene for the actor Publisher The Colored Museum George C. Wolfe, 1988 Eleven sketches exhibits in the Colored Museum offer a humorous and irreverent look at slavery Black cuisine soldiers family life performers and parties The Black Male in White America Jacob U. Gordon, 2002 This book explores twelve related research topics each constituting a chapter These chapters reflect the magnitude of the problems facing the African American male The book also documents the success stories of African American men and how they have lived beyond stereotypes and other odds These problems are not likely to go away in the 21st century They require government action and individual initiative toward a civil society in which America's promise can be a reality for all Americans thus making sure that no single American will be left behind Colored Museum George C. Wolfe, 1988-05-01 Eleven sketches exhibits in the Colored Museum offer a humorous and irreverent look at slavery Black cuisine soldiers family life performers and parties A History of African American Theatre Errol G. Hill, James V. Hatch, 2003-07-17 Table of contents Reclaiming Time Isaiah Matthew Wooden, 2025-03-15 Showing how twenty first century Black theater and media arts challenge dominant conceptualizations of time Reclaiming Time Race Temporality and Black Expressive Culture examines works by contemporary Black artists in multiple media drama film performance art and photography that trouble dominant conceptualizations and normative configurations of time in relation to race in the twenty first century Isaiah Matthew Wooden explores the ways in which an intentional and sometimes ludic engagement with time and temporality has enabled these artists to probe urgent questions and themes concerning the conditions of contemporary Black life Wooden surveys a diverse array of performance based and visual texts to explore the rich practices of contemporary Black expressive culture dramatic works by playwrights Eisa Davis Tarell Alvin McCraney and Robert O Hara performance art and photography by visual artists Jefferson Pinder and LaToya Ruby Frazier and feature length cinema by director producer Tanya Hamilton These works expose normative time as specious and evidence the transformative potential in honing practices of Black temporal experimentation and intervention By putting this cross disciplinary set of texts in conversation with each other Wooden sheds new light on the shrewd ways that they each reflect an investment in unbinding time from the exigencies of normativity and teleology as well as on their shared commitments to reclaiming time to reimagine and represent Blackness in all its multiplicities Labyrinth of Hybridities Marc Maufort, 2010 Taking its cue from Eugene O'Neill's questioning of faithful realism voiced by Edmund Tyrone in Long Day's Journey into Night this book examines the distant legacy of the Irish American playwright in contemporary multiethnic drama in the U S It explores the labyrinth of formal devices through which African American Latina o First Nations and Asian American dramatists have unconsciously reinterpreted O'Neill's questioning of mimesis. In their works hybridizations of stage realism function as aesthetic celebrations of the spiritual potentialities of cultural in-betweenness. This volume provides detailed analyses of over forty plays authored by such key artists as August Wilson, Suzan-Lori Parks, José Rivera, Cherríe Moraga, Hanay Geiogamah, Diane Glancy, David Henry Hwang, and Chay Yew, to give only a few prominent examples. All in all, Labyrinth of Hybridities invites its readers to reassess the cross-cultural patterns characterizing the history of twentieth-century American drama.

New York Magazine, 1986-11-17. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

The Colored Museum, by George C. Wolfe. Regina Selma Guggenheim, George C. Wolfe, 1993.

The Kentucky Anthology. Wade Hall, 2005-11-11. For over two hundred years Kentucky has inspired many of the nation's finest writers, both natives of the Bluegrass State and outsiders who were entranced by its rich natural wonders and culture. This book assembles a collection of writings embodying the hopes, concerns, and aspirations that have made the state unique and yet typically American.

Notes on the Painted Glass in Canterbury Cathedral, 1897. House documents, 1895. American Drama, 1999.

The Servant of Colour. Maurice Tordoff, 1984.

Scribner's Magazine ..., 1896.

The Roots of African American Drama. Leo Hamalian, James Vernon Hatch, 1991. While many historically significant or interesting plays by white playwrights are easily found in anthologies, few by early African American writers are equally accessible. Indeed, until the 1970s, almost none of these early plays could be located outside of a library. The Roots of African American Drama fills this gap. Five of the thirteen scripts included here have never been in print, and only three others are presently available anywhere. The plays represent a variety of styles: allegory, naturalism, realism, melodrama, musical comedy, and opera. Four are full-length, eight are one acts, and one is a skit. Their subjects include slavery, sharecropping, World War I, vaudeville, religion, and legend and mythology. In making their selections, the editors used a variety of criteria to insure each play is dramatically sound and historically important. They also searched for those scripts that were unjustly consigned to obscurity. Each selection begins with headnotes that place it in its historical and cultural context. Biographic information and a bibliography of other plays follow each script, providing readers with added sources for study.
