Stony the Road We Trod, Volume 1 Rosemary T. Curran, 2024-06-21 When Angelina Grimk pleads with her brother Henry not to punish a household slave she does not anticipate her stony road ahead as a remarkably effective abolitionist speaker Leaving behind their illustrious slave holding family she and her sister Sarah take their northern audiences by storm Yet the very fact of their speaking in public as women doubles the opposition they face and leads them to become among the earliest American voices for women s rights As they and their fellow abolitionists experience violent riots and the burning of their lecture hall they wonder if their efforts have been in vain Romance and marriage lead them to a less public life but in the aftermath of Emancipation and the Civil War a formidable challenge awaits them in the discovery of their unknown nephews After their father s death and prior to the war these promising nephews children of Henry and his slave mistress Nancy Weston are enslaved by their half brother Mistreated abused and beaten nearly to death they eventually escape and find their way north seeking a full education But will their eventual encounter with their abolitionist aunts redeem the suffering they and their mother experienced at the hands of their southern family

On the Road to Global Labour History, 2017-09-18 Global Labour History is a latecomer to historical science It has only developed in the last three decades This anthology provides a comprehensive overview of the state of the art Prominent representatives of the discipline discuss its fundamental methodological and conceptual aspects In addition the volume contains field and case studies from Africa and Latin America as well as from the Middle East and China In these studies the local regional and continental constitutive processes of the working class are discussed from a global historical perspective The anthology has been composed as a Festschrift dedicated to Marcel van der Linden the leading theoretician of and networker for Global Labour History
