Beardsworth,Randall E. Auxier,2017-05-09 The Philosophy of Umberto Eco stands out in the Library of Living Philosophers series as the volume on the most interdisciplinary scholar hitherto and probably the most widely translated The Italian philosopher s name and works are well known in the humanities both his philosophical and literary works being translated into fifteen or more languages Eco is a founder of modern semiotics and widely known for his work in the philosophy of language and aesthetics He is also a leading figure in the emergence of postmodern literature and is associated with cultural and mass communication studies His writings cover topics such as advertising television and children s literature as well as philosophical questions bearing on truth reality cognition language and literature The critical essays in this volume cover the full range of this output This book has wide appeal not only because of its interdisciplinary nature but also because of Eco s famous high and low approach which is deeply scholarly in conception and very accessible in outcome The short essay Why Philosophy included in the volume is exemplary in this regard it will appeal to scholars for its wit and to high school students for its intelligibility     The Divine comedy of Dante Alighieri, translated by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Henry Wadsworth Longfellow,1886     Rubbing Salt in the Wounds - A study of media, power and immigration Matthew Randall,2009-03-12 Master s Thesis from the year 2003 in the subject Social Work grade 1 3 Alice Salomon University of Applied Sciences Berlin AS language English abstract Abstract This thesis involves a multi disciplinary study of the relationship between media power and immigration in the UK The initial goal is to establish the major themes and issues that should potentially play strong roles in the mass media reportage of asylum and immigration This is achieved through an analysis of the UK s refugee intake compared to other countries in the world the demographic effect of immigration in the UK and the situations in the major refugee sending countries A historical research into both the domestic immigration policies of UK politicians and the contemporary strategies of globalisation is used to ascertain the very different themes and issues of asylum and immigration that reflect the agenda of the UK political elite Using Herman and Chomsky s US Propaganda Model as a theoretical template the UK s mass media is structurally analysed to ascertain its potential subservience to domestic elite interests Having discovered that fundamental institutional similarities exist between the US and the UK media a content analysis is performed on three British newspapers to test the predictions of Herman and Chomsky s media model The results of this case study reveal strongly that asylum immigration themes useful to the UK political elites are highly visible despite their lack of statistical relevance whereas fundamental issues damaging to this group are minimised or ignored This work therefore concludes that the UK mainstream media is flawed as a conduit of information concerning asylum and immigration issues due to its lack of structural independence from the agenda of the political elite The thesis closes with an overview of organisations attempting to challenge these flaws     Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ... ,1893     Among My Books James Russell Lowell,1884     Publications of the Spenser Society Spenser Society,1875     The Works of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Henry Wadsworth Longfellow,1886     The Literary Magnet of the Belles Lettres, Science, and the Fine Arts Tobias Merton,1824
