H. Earle,2017-06-19 Conflict and trauma remain among the most prevalent themes in film and literature Comics has never avoided such narratives and comics artists are writing them in ways that are both different from and complementary to literature and film In Comics Trauma and the New Art of War Harriet E H Earle brings together two distinct areas of research trauma studies and comics studies to provide a new interpretation of a long standing theme Focusing on representations of conflict in American comics after the Vietnam War Earle claims that the comics form is uniquely able to show traumatic experience by representing events as viscerally as possible Using texts from across the form and placing mainstream superhero comics alongside alternative and art comics Earle suggests that comics are the ideal artistic representation of trauma Because comics bridge the gap between the visual and the written they represent such complicated narratives as loss and trauma in unique ways particularly through the manipulation of time and experience Comics can fold time and confront traumatic events be they personal or shared through a myriad of both literary and visual devices As a result comics can represent trauma in ways that are unavailable to other narrative and artistic forms With themes such as dreams and mourning Earle concentrates on trauma in American comics after the Vietnam War Examples include Alissa Torres s American Widow Doug Murray s The Nam and Art Spiegelman s much lauded Maus These works pair with ideas from a wide range of thinkers including Sigmund Freud Mikhail Bakhtin and Fredric Jameson as well as contemporary trauma theory and clinical psychology Through these examples and others Comics Trauma and the New Art of War proves that comics open up new avenues to explore personal and public trauma in extraordinary necessary ways Iris Murdoch and Remorse Frances White,2023-11-24 This exploration of the crucially important role played by remorse in Iris Murdoch s philosophical theological and political thinking identifies it as a critical concept in her moral psychology and a recurrent theme in her art Through engagement with Simone Weil current theories of remorse trauma theory and Holocaust studies it offers fresh perspectives on Murdoch s fiction particularly the late novels her radio play The One Alone and her monograph Heidegger Female Detectives on Post-Network Television Alison Wielgus,2025-12-11 Building on contemporary scholarship on post network television feminism melodrama and crime television Alison Wielgus analyzes post network female detective television through the lenses of genre industry and discourses of police abolition to argue for a radicalization of crime television that incorporates discourses of restorative justice and a feminist ethics of care Spinal Trauma - An Imaging Approach Victor N. Cassar-Pullicino,Herwig Imhof,2011-01-01 The diagnosis of trauma to the spine where the slightest oversight may have catastrophic results requires a thorough grasp of the spectrum of resultant pathology as well as the imaging modalities used in making an accurate diagnosis In Spinal Trauma the internationally renowned team of experts provides a comprehensive cutting edge exposition of the current vital role of imaging in the diagnosis and treatment of injuries to the axial skeleton. Beginning with a valuable clinical perspective of spinal trauma the book offers the reader a unique overview of the biomechanics underlying the beautifully illustrated pathology of cervical trauma. Acute trauma topics include Optimization of imaging modalities, Malalignment signs and significance, Vertebral fractures detection and implications, Classification of thoraco lumbar fractures, rationale and relevance, Neurovascular injury, Distilling decades of clinical and teaching expertise, the contributors further discuss the current role of imaging in special focus topics which include The pediatric spine, Sports injuries, The rigid spine, Trauma in the elderly, Vertebral collapse, benign and malignant Spinal trauma, therapy, Vertebral fractures and osteoporosis, Neuropathic spine. All throughout the book the focus is on understanding the injury and its implications and complications through an imaging approach. Lavishly illustrated with hundreds of superb MR images and CT scans and clear full color drawings the authors conclude with a look into the future defining clinical trends and research directions. Spinal Trauma with its broad scope, practical imaging approach and current focus is designed to enhance confidence and accuracy making it essential reading for clinicians and radiologists at all levels.

In-between Fact and Fiction. Representing the Traumatization of Child Soldiers in Uzodinma Iweala's "Beasts of No Nation" and Emmanuel "Jal's Warchild" Anne-Karen Fischer, 2017-12-18 Examination Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 10 University of Constance Anglistik Amerikanistik language English abstract Although the use of children in warfare is not a recent issue child soldiering has received increasing attention throughout the past two decades This trend led to a rapid increase of literary works that deal with the topic of child soldiers both fictional and autobiographical The topic of child soldiers often goes hand in hand with the topic of trauma and traumatization Repeated exposure to overwhelming danger and life threatening experiences can leave children with severe mental ill health such as Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and personality changes Literary works draw attention to the relationship between child soldiers and trauma as well as to the difficult relationship between trauma and representability in this context This analysis attempts to contribute to the literary research of how trauma is represented in child soldier literature and to increase awareness of this topic on an academic level As this analysis is meant to make a small contribution to the literary research on child soldier literature it merely focuses on two narrations Uzodinma Iweala's Beasts of No Nation 2006 and Emmanuel Jal's Warchild 2009 These two books were chosen based on the great differences of both the narrations and the authors background Beasts of No Nation BoNN tells a fictional story whereas Warchild is an autobiography Uzodinma Iweala is an African American writer with Nigerian roots and BoNN can be seen as a postmodern novel as it uses various postmodern and experimental narrative techniques Emmanuel Jal Jal in contrast was born and raised in Sudan and fought as a child soldier Warchild is an autobiography about his life as a child soldier before and afterwards It mostly uses traditional narrative forms to recount Jal's experiences Based on these differences the two books can serve as good examples of how trauma can be represented in child soldier literature

Teaching Life Writing Texts Miriam Fuchs, Craig Howes, 2008 The past thirty years have witnessed a rapid growth in the number and variety of courses and programs that study life writing from literary philosophical psychological and cultural perspectives The field has evolved from the traditional approach that biographies and autobiographies were always about prominent people historically significant persons the nobility celebrities writers to the conception of life writing as a genre of interrogation and revelation The texts now studied include memoirs testimonios diaries oral histories genealogies and group biographies and extend to resources in the visual and plastic arts in films and videos and on the Internet Today the tensions between canonical and emergent life writing texts between the famous and the formerly unrepresented are making the study of biography and autobiography a far more nuanced and multifarious activity This volume in the MLA series Options for Teaching builds on and complements earlier work on pedagogical issues in life writing studies Over forty contributors from a broad range of educational institutions describe courses for every level of postsecondary instruction Some writers draw heavily on literary and cultural theory others share their assignments and weekly syllabi Many essays grapple with texts that represent disability illness abuse and depression ethnic sexual and racial discrimination crises and catastrophes witnessing and testimonials human rights violations and genocide The classes described are taught in humanities cultural studies social science and language departments and are located in among other countries the United States Great Britain Canada Australia Germany Eritrea and South Africa

Spine Trauma Alan M. Levine,1998 A resource devoted exclusively to all aspects of spine trauma Coverage is multi disciplinary covering orthopedic and neurosurgical topics Also includes in depth coverage of pain control physical therapy and rehabilitation in addition to specific considerations of management

The Behavior Therapist ,2008 Paragraph ,2007 Transactions American Academy of Railway Surgeons,1897

Trauma, Postmodernism and the Aftermath of World War II Paul Crosthwaite,2009-01-29 The radical postmodernist waves of experimentation that swept Anglo American fiction from the late 1960s constitute a delayed response to the upheavals of the Second World War yet the legacy of the war barely figures in prevalent accounts of the postmodernist movement As Paul Crosthwaite shows in this provocative book to recognize the significance of the war in contemporary culture is to acknowledge that postmodernism as a sensibility aesthetic style and mode of thought must be entirely reconceived Challenging dominant theorizations of the postmodern as depthless and dehistoricized Crosthwaite demonstrates that postmodernism has not abandoned history but has rather reformulated it in terms of trauma trauma that is traceable time and again to the catastrophes of the 1940s The book stages a revealing confrontation between influential theories of trauma and postmodernism and offers innovative close readings of key texts by Virginia Woolf Thomas Pynchon Michael Moorcock J G Ballard Richard Powers and Ian McEwan
