The Plot Dealing With Feelings:

Religious Ideas, Feelings and Their Interrelationship Theo van der Zee, 2007 Religious education seeks to help students acquire religious ideas by interpreting religious and other stories in accordance with their life world Schools pursue this goal by organising religious learning activities The question is whether the acquisition of religious ideas is possible for young students considering the difficulties such as the complex and not readily understandable religious stories and social developments as de institutionalisation de traditionalisation and pluralisation What are the possibilities for primary schools of teaching their students knowledge about religious ideas What is the influence of feelings on the acquisition What possibilities in the form of learning arrangements can be created for primary school students with their diverse religious backgrounds to acquire religious ideas optimally That is the cardinal problem explored in this study

Feelings of Being Alive Joerg Fingerhut, Sabine Marienberg, 2012-07-30 The question of what characterizes feelings of being alive is a puzzling and controversial one Are we dealing with a unique affective phenomenon or can it be integrated into existing classifications of emotions and moods What might be the natural basis for such feelings What could be considered their specifically human dimension These issues are addressed by researchers from various disciplines including philosophy of mind and emotions psychology and history of art This volume contains original papers on the topic of feelings of being alive by Fiorella Battaglia Eva Maria Engelen Joerg Fingerhut Thomas Fuchs Alice Holzhey Kunz Matthias Jung Tanja Klemm Riccardo Manzotti Sabine Marienberg Matthew Ratcliffe Arbogast Schmitt Jan Slaby and Achim Stephan

Psychocinematics Arthur P. Shimamura, 2014-02-15 Largely through trial and error filmmakers have developed engaging techniques that capture our sensations thoughts and feelings Philosophers and film theorists have thought deeply about the nature and impact of these techniques yet few scientists have delved into empirical analyses of our movie experience or what Arthur P Shimamura has coined psychocinematics This edited volume introduces this exciting field by bringing together film theorists philosophers psychologists and neuroscientists to consider the viability of a scientific approach to our movie experience

How to Deal with Refugees? Gerhard Besier, Katarzyna Stoklosa, 2018 2015 was without any doubt the year of migrations Over the subsequent two years we have certainly seen the migration flows reduce but it was never going to be possible to halt them altogether From the outset of this phenomenon numerous academics and researchers have dedicated themselves to the topic They analyse the causes the course of the migration flows parallels and impacts as well as possible scenarios of the migration movement A wide reaching debate has evolved on the topic of migration to which the authors in this anthology were also keen to contribute conflict regulations attempts In this publication historians political scientists philosophers sociologists geographers human geographers economists literary scientists legal scholars theologians and psychiatrists from a range of European and Non European countries have each contributed from their individual standpoints

Emotions through Literature Mariano Longo, 2019-07-23 Engaging with the wide sociological literature on emotions this book explores the social representation of emotions their management and their effects by making reference to creative sources With a specific focus on literary narrative including the works of figures such as Dante Austen Manzoni Tolstoy and Kundera the author draws out the capacity of literary works to describe and represent both the external aspects of social relations and the inner motivations of the involved actors An interdisciplinary study that combines sociology narratology philosophy historical analysis and literary criticism Emotions through Literature invites us to re think the role of emotions in sociological analysis employing literary narratives to give plausible intellectual responses to the double nature of emotions their being both individual and social

Positive Youth Development, Mental

Health, and Psychological Well-Being in Diverse Youth Nora Wiium, Laura Ferrer-Wreder, Jennifer E. Lansford, Lene Arnett Jensen, 2023-06-15 In this Research Topic our aim is to examine how personal resources related to competencies skills and self perception as well as environmental contextual and relational features of the social contexts of diverse youth directly or indirectly are important to mental health and psychological well being As previous research on young people has mainly focused on youth s weaknesses rather than their strengths our use of Positive Youth Development PYD in working with culturally diverse youth and their well being in this Research Topic is novel We invite contributions from researchers that were initially presented their papers in a meeting that was held by research partners of the Cross National Project on Positive Youth Development CN PYD and who represent an international and multidisciplinary panel of experts on PYD The CN PYD was initiated in 2014 at the University of Bergen and has an ongoing data collection that involves approximately 10 000 minority and majority youth and emerging adults ages 16 to 29 living in Africa Asia Australia Europe New Zealand and South America CN PYD uses a strengths based approach to the conceptualization of youth as resources and agentic which is in opposition to the view of the developmental period of adolescence as being a period inherently fraught with problems and risks The goal of the cross national project is to assess personal strengths and contextual resources considering how these resources come together to facilitate youth thriving and to document how young people make positive and valued contributions to themselves and others We also advance research on the complex interplay between personal and contextual resources and their connections with risk behaviors and problems in essence taking a perspective of the whole child both in terms of strengths and problems

Cognitive and Mental Health Improvement Under- and Post-COVID-19 - Volume

II Gabriele Nibbio, Chong Chen, Yuka Kotozaki, 2025-04-07 This Research Topic is a part of a collection on the topic of Cognitive and Mental Health Improvement Under and Post COVID 19 An increasing body of research suggests that the COVID 19 pandemic has worsened global mental health and caused more cognitive impairments Whereas the COVID 19 pandemic is still ongoing in some regions it is expected to be ending for most regions in the very near future From a psychological psychiatric and public mental health perspective it is of vital importance to conduct effective and efficient interventions to promote cognitive and mental health for they not only are essential for us to cope with the ongoing pandemic but also necessary for us to rebuild a better world post the pandemic Not to say that a healthy cognitive and mental health state is at the core of human wellbeing and deserves its own place From previous studies and everyday practices we already know that regular exercise appropriate sleep nutritious diet close social ties connection with nature mindfulness among others help improve cognition and boost mental health However the optimal regimen for each specific cognitive and mental health outcome for a specific population including both those of healthy and clinical is unclear and remain to be identified Furthermore the underlying psychological physiological and neurobiological mechanisms through which each activity or intervention improves cognition and promotes mental health are to be clarified
