Language, Text and Context Michael Toolan, 2016-11-18 First published in 1992 this wide ranging collection of essays focuses on the principle of contextualisation as it applies to the interpretation description theorising and reading of literary and non literary texts The collection aims to reveal the interdependencies between theory analysis text and context by challenging the myth that stylistics entails a fundamental separation of text from context linguistic description from descriptive interpretation or language from situation The essays cover a historically diverse set of texts from Puttenham to Colemanballs and a number of language sensitive topics such as post modernism irony newspaper representations gender and narrative

Making Sense of Text Linda Gerot, 1998 Cinema, Censorship and Sexuality 1909-1925 (Routledge Revivals) Annette Kuhn, 2016-04-06 First published in 1988 This book shows how censorship as a set of institutions practices and discourses was involved in the struggle over the nature of cinema in the early twentieth century It also reveals the part played in this struggle by other institutions practices and discourses for example new knowledge about sexuality and organisations devoted to the promotion of public morality Instead of censorship simply being an act of prohibition by a special institution this work reveals the issues at work were far more complex and contradictory opening up critical scrutiny and challenging assumptions This title will be of interest to students of media and film studies

Text, Context, Pretext H. G. Widdowson, 2008-04-15 Written by a leading researcher in the field this fascinating examination of the relations between grammar text and discourse is designed to provoke critical discussion on key issues in discourse analysis which are not always clearly identified and examined Written by a leading researcher in the field Continues the enquiry into discourse analysis that Zellig Harris initiated 50 years ago which raised a number of problematic issues that have remained unresolved ever since Introduces the notion of pretext as an additional factor in the general interpretative process Focuses attention specifically on the work of critical discourse analysis CDA in light of the issues discussed

Launching Liberalism Michael P. Zuckert, 2002 In this volume prominent political theorist Michael Zuckert presents an important and pathbreaking set of meditations on the thought of John Locke In more than a dozen provocative essays many appearing in print for the first time Zuckert explores the complexity of Locke s engagement with his philosophical and theological predecessors his profound influence on later liberal thinkers and his amazing success in transforming the political understanding of the Anglo American world At the same time he also demonstrates Locke s continuing relevance in current debates involving such prominent thinkers as Rawls and MacIntyre Zuckert s careful reconsideration of Locke's role as launcher of liberalism involves a sustained engagement with the hermeneutical issues surrounding Locke an innovator who faced special rhetorical needs in addressing his contemporaries and the future It also involves highlighting the novelty of Locke's position by examining his stance toward the philosophical and religious traditions in place when he wrote Zuckert argues that neither of the dominant ways of understanding Locke's relations to his predecessors and contemporaries is adequate he is not well seen as a follower of any orthodoxy nor of any anti orthodoxy of his day either philosophical or theological He found a path to innovation that was philosophically radical but which was also able to connect with prevailing and accepted traditions That allowed him to exercise a practical influence in history rarely if ever matched by any other philosopher Zuckert illustrates that influence by showing how William Blackstone used Lockean philosophy to reshape the common law and how the Americans of the eighteenth century used Lockean philosophy to reshape Whig political thought Zuckert argues that Locke's philosophy has continuing philosophic and political force a proposition he demonstrates by arguing that Locke presents a form of political philosophy superior to that of the liberal theorists of our day and that he has solid rejoinders to contemporary critics of liberalism Making Sense of Messages Mark Stoner, 2019-11-13

Making Sense of Messages now in its second edition retains the apprenticeship approach which facilitates effectively learning the complex content and skills of rhetorical theory and criticism A new chapter on The Rhetoric of Ignorance provides needed theory and examples that help students deal with the new rhetorical landscape marked by such discursive complexities as fake news whataboutism and denial of science that creates rather than reduces uncertainty in public argument A new chapter Curating and Analyzing Multimodal Mediated Rhetoric deals with problems of media criticism in the digital age It provides theory models of application and commentary that help novice critics understand and mindfully practice criticism that leads to insight not mere opinion Throughout the book extended and updated examples and commentaries are designed to promote novice to expert agency in students This textbook is ideal for introductory courses in contemporary rhetoric rhetorical criticism and critical analysis of mass media The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014-05-23

Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other
