Snake Country:

Contested Empire John Phillip Reid, 2002 Do law and legal procedures exist only so long as there is an official authority to enforce them Or do we have an unspoken sense of law and ethics To answer these questions John Phillip Reid's Contested Empire explores the implicit notions of law shared by American and British fur traders in the Snake River country of Idaho and surrounding areas in the early nineteenth century Both the United States and Great Britain had claimed this region and passions were intense Focusing mainly on Canadian explorer and trader Peter Skene Ogden Reid finds that both sides largely avoided violence and other difficulties because they held the same definitions of property contract conversion and possession In 1824 the Hudson's Bay Company directed Ogden to decimate the furbearing animal population of the Snake River country thus marking the region a fur desert With this mandate Great Britain hoped to neutralize any interest American furtrappers could have in the area Such a mandate set British and American fur men on a collision course but Ogden and his American counterparts implicitly followed a kind of law and procedure and observed a mutual sense of property and rights even as the two sides vied for control of the fur trade Failing to take legal culture into consideration some previous accounts have depicted these conflicts as mere episodes of lawless frontier violence Reid expands our understanding of the West by considering the unspoken sense of law that existed despite the lack of any formalized authorities in what had otherwise been considered a lawless time A Country So Interesting Richard I. Ruggles, 1991-02-01 A vital part of A Country So Interesting are the annotated catalogues of all the maps known to have been produced by the Hudson's Bay Company 838 maps and 557 sketches While most are in the Company's archives in Manitoba Ruggles has tracked down maps in other collections particularly in various libraries in London England Also included are sixty six reproductions of the most important maps and map details Encounters with the People Dennis Baird, Diane Mallick, William R. Swagerty, 2021-10-04 Organized both chronologically and thematically Encounters with the People is an edited annotated compilation of unique primary sources related to Nez Perce history Native American oral histories diary excerpts military reports maps and more Generous elders shared their collective memory of carefully guarded stories passed down through multiple generations One described the level of attentiveness required to preserve their oral history as so still to listen that you could hear a bird take a drink of water on the other side of the mountain The work begins with early Nimiipuu Euro American contact and extends to the period immediately after the Treaty of 1855 held at Walla Walla The editors scoured archives federal document repositories and state and local historical museums in search of little known documents related to regional cultural and environmental history Most of the selected material is published for the first time or is found only in obscure sources Complete documents are included wherever possible and any excisions carefully noted Part of the Voices from Nez Perce Country series Encounters with the People includes a thorough up to date annotated bibliography Those interested in the Nez Perce Native American Studies Lewis and Clark early missionary work and Inland Northwest settlement will find it an

Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents.
