Prostitution, Race, and Politics Philippa Levine, 2003 Publisher description The Sex Industry: A Survey of Sex Workers in Queensland, Australia Frances Boyle, Shirley Glennon, Jake M. Najman, Gavin Turrell, John S. Western, Carole Wood, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this study reports on a study of 221 sex workers in Queensland Australia The workers were interviewed by an interviewer with experience in the industry They were asked a variety of questions relating to how they came to enter the industry their knowledge of and attitudes towards safe sex and a variety of other questions to do with lifestyle service use and sexual health and contact with the police and legal system Sex work emerges as an activity which has a number of advantages The pay is good the hours are short and the work enables the worker to meet some interesting people and engage in social activities Unlike other occupations entry into sex work is somewhat haphazard few appearing to plan entry to this industry as a career path but once in the industry many find it has benefits as well as disadvantages Primary amongst these latter are the risks of acquiring a sexually transmitted disease AIDS being uppermost in their minds or the fear of violence which is associated with the context in which services are provided In addition sex workers often manifest a lifestyle which includes substance use and abuse Relationships with police are often problematic and many workers report experiences which are critical of the legal system This book provides a broad insight into the industry which for parts of Australia is subjected to substantial change Such insights contribute not only to our understanding of the industry itself but also to the kind of health promoting activities which need to be initiated So Much Hard Work Kay Daniels, 1984 Includes chapter by A McGrath separately annotated British Female Emigration Societies and the New World, 1860-1914 Marie Ruiz, 2017-07-11 This book focuses on the departure of Britain's surplus women to Australia and New Zealand organised by Victorian British female emigration societies Starting with an analysis of the surplus of women question it then explores the philanthropic nature of the organisations the Female Middle Class Emigration Society the Women's Emigration Society the British Women's Emigration Association and the Church Emigration Society The study of the strict selection of distressed gentlewomen emigrants is followed by an analysis of their marketing value and an appraisal of women's imperialism Finally this work shows that the female emigrants under study partook in the consolidation of the colonial middle class Companion to Women's Historical Writing M. Spongberg, A. Curthoys, B. Caine, 2016-04-30 This A Z reference work provides the first comprehensive reference guide to the wide range of historical writing with which women have been involved particularly since the Renaissance The Companion covers biographical writing travelogue and historical fictions broadening the concept of history to include the forms of writing with which women have historically engaged The focus is on women writing in English internationally but historical and historiographical traditions from beyond the English speaking world are also examined Brief biographies of individual writers are included

Complicating Categories: Gender, Class, Race and Ethnicity Eileen Boris, Angelique Janssens, 1999 This volume focuses on complicating central concepts in the understanding of economic and social history class gender race and ethnicity Only recently have historians begun to ask how gender race and ethnicity as categories of analysis change narratives of class formation and working class experience While all three concepts refer to systems of inequality it remains unclear how these systems of difference relate to each other Despite a growing body of empirical literature authors more often connect dyads rather than consider historical phenomenon from the triad of class race and gender This volume highlights attempts to write a richer history that complicates categories suggesting how class gender race and or ethnicity combine across a wide range of economic and social landscapes

Missionary Positions Lauren McGrow, 2017-08-28 Missionary Positions examines the context for Christian outreach to people in the sex industry Over the last 20 years faith based organisations have become more engaged in ministering with sex workers But what are the methods and desired outcomes that undergird pastoral practice in this field Most Christians see prostitution as evil and those who sell sex are considered broken victims in need of restoration Yet the voices and experiences of sex workers themselves often challenge these assumptions Using feminist and postcolonial perspectives interviews with Christian practitioners in Australia and personal narrative Lauren McGrow carves out a space for the dynamic theological agency and life complexity of sex workers to be more fully acknowledged in faith based outreach projects
