Social And Political Change In Literature And Film:

African Pasts, Presents, and Futures Touria Khannous, 2013-10-17 African Pasts Presents and Futures Generational Shifts in African Women's Literature Film and Internet Discourse by Touria Khannous provides a history of African women's cultural production as well as an alternative approach to the arguments that have traditionally dominated post colonial studies in general and African and gender studies in particular It examines some of the more overarching questions that are prevalent in the works of African women authors who position themselves within the contexts of Islam feminism nationalism modernity and global and postcolonial politics thus engaging in the construction of socio political platforms for reform in their home countries The book explores different aspects of women's agency at the political cultural social religious and aesthetic level and highlights their civil society activism and push for legal reform It also traces their opinions on a range of social and political questions and underscores fundamental shifts in their positions and concerns through the different generations

Literature, Cinema and Politics 1930-1945 Lara Feigel, 2010-07-16 This book tells the story of a generation of writers who were passionately engaged with politics and with cinema exploring the rise and fall of a distinct tradition of cinematic literature Dismayed by the rise of fascism in Europe and by the widening gulf separating the classes at home these writers turned to cinema as a popular and hard hitting art form Lara Feigel crosses boundaries between high modernism and social realism and between high and popular culture bringing together Virginia Woolf with W H Auden Elizabeth Bowen with John Sommerfield Sergei Eisenstein with Gracie Fields The book ends in the Second World War an era when the bombs and searchlights rendered everyday life cinematic Feigel interrogates the genres she maps drawing on cultural theories from the 1920s onwards to investigate the nature of the cinematic and the literary While it was not possible directly to transfer the techniques of the screen to the page any more than it was possible to go over to the working classes the attempts nonetheless reveal a fascinating intersection of the visual and the verbal the political and the aesthetic In reading between the frames of an unexplored literary tradition this book redefines 1930s and wartime literature and politics

Boehm,1998 Women Screenwriters Jill Neldes, Jule Selbo, 2015-09-29 Women Screenwriters is a study of more than 300 female writers from 60 nations from the first film scenarios produced in 1986 to the present day Divided into six sections by continent the entries give an overview of the history of women screenwriters in each country as well as individual biographies of its most influential The Hollywood Social Problem Film Peter Roffman, Jim Purdy, 1981 Solidarity,

Memory and Identity Maria Virginia Filomena Cremasco, Wojciech Owczarski, 2015-01-12 In today's context of rapid socio political changes with deepening ethnic and religious conflicts on the one hand and a diminishing feeling of identification with the community on the other reflection on the idea of solidarity is very much necessary This book provides answers to the following questions What is the idea of solidarity today How can it be defined How has it evolved over recent decades How does it manifest itself in social life How is it reflected in the arts and above all How does it relate to collective memory and identity With this outline of topic areas in mind this volume brings together essays analysing various aspects of the concept of solidarity namely philosophical social political cultural historical psychological and artistic The book s interdisciplinary character is testament to the complexity of perspectives and contexts in which the phenomenon of solidarity can be described today in the social sciences and the humanities As such it contains chapters devoted to the history of ideas international relations and political conflicts in the modern world national minorities racism and anti-Semitism and twentieth century crimes against humanity as well as psychological case studies experimental research on mechanisms of social behaviour and analyses of works of art The contributors to this volume represent academic centres from Africa the Americas Asia and Europe They are deeply concerned with fighting against any forms of discrimination and as such their respective chapters mark a contribution to the constant search for the improvement of the fate of societies and individuals in different corners of the globe Consequently this book has an ethical dimension in addition to its cognitive side inspiring its readers to undertake efforts to help victims of social exclusion persecution and crime

My Self on Camera Kiki Tianqi Yu, 2018-11-14 My Self on Camera is the first book to explore first person narrative documentary in China s post Mao era Since the emergence of the individual as an ever more important social figure in China this mode of independent filmmaking and cultural practice has become increasingly significant Combining the approach of cultural ethnography interviews and textual analysis of selected films this study examines the motivations key aesthetic features and ethical tensions of presenting the self on camera as well as the socio political cultural and technical conditions surrounding its practice This book problematises how the sense of self and subjectivities are understood in contemporary China and provides illuminating new insights on the changing notion of the individual through cinema

Which Degree Directory Series ,2000 Which Degree Guide ,2001 "Ambassadors of Good Will" Katrina L. Mann, 2005 Historical Abstracts ,1993 The Changing American Countryside Emery N. Castle, 1995 The literature on rural America to the extent that it exists has largely been written by urban based scholars perpetuating out of date notions and stereotypes or by those who see little difference between rural and agricultural concerns As a result the real rural America remains much misunderstood neglected or ignored by scholars and policymakers alike In response Emery Castle offers The Changing American Countryside a volume that will forever change how we look at this important subject Castle brings together the writings of eminent scholars from several disciplines and varying backgrounds to take a fresh and comprehensive look at the forgotten hinterlands These authors examine the role of non metropolitan people and places in the economic life of our nation and cover such diverse issues as poverty industry the environment education family social problems ethnicity race religion gender government public policy and regional diversity The authors are especially effective in demonstrating why rural America is so much more than just agriculture It is in fact highly diverse complex and interdependent with urban America and the international market place Most major rural

problems they contend simply cannot be effectively addressed in isolation from their urban and international connections To do so is misguided and even hazardous when one fourth of our population and ninety seven per cent of our land area is rural Together these writings not only provide a new and more realistic view of rural life and public policy but also suggest how the field of rural studies can greatly enrich our understanding of national life America, History and Life ,2007 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada The Independent ,1989
