

The background of the book cover is a surrealist painting. It depicts a landscape with a large, steep red slope on the left side. On this slope, numerous black silhouettes of human figures are arranged in rows, appearing to walk or stand. The ground is a mix of green and brown, with some red patches. In the distance, there is a body of water and a horizon line. The sky is a pale, hazy blue with some faint, wispy clouds. The overall style is reminiscent of a tapestry or a folk-art inspired painting.

Social Anthropology And Public Policy In Northern Ireland:

Social Anthropology and Public Policy in Northern Ireland Hastings Donnan, Graham McFarlane, 1989 The Anthropology of Ireland Hastings Donnan, Thomas M. Wilson, 2020-08-04 Where and what is Ireland What are the identities of the people of Ireland How has European Union membership shaped Irish people's lives and interests How global is local Ireland This book argues that such questions can be answered only by understanding everyday aspects of Irish culture and identity Such understanding is achieved by paying close attention to what people in Ireland themselves say about the radical changes in their lives in the context of wider global transformation As notions of sex religion and politics are radically reworked in an Ireland being re imagined in ways inconceivable just a generation ago anthropologists have been at the forefront of recording the results The first comprehensive book length introduction to anthropological research on the island as a whole The Anthropology of Ireland considers the changing place in a changing Ireland of religion sex sport race dance young people the Travellers St Patrick's Day and much more Anthropology of Policy Cris Shore, Susan Wright, 2003-12-16 Arguing that policy has become an increasingly central concept and instrument in the organisation of contemporary societies and that it now impinges on all areas of life so that it is virtually impossible to ignore or escape its influence this book argues that the study of policy leads straight into issues at the heart of anthropology Bibliographic Guide to Anthropology and Archaeology, 1991 Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford, 1992 Studies, 1989 An Irish quarterly review Annals of the Association of Social Anthropologists and Directory of Members Association of Social Anthropologists of the Commonwealth, 1994 The Future of Anthropology Akbar S. Ahmed, 1995 Is anthropology relevant to our lives today Does anthropology have anything to contribute in the coming time How are anthropologists responding to the post colonial post modernist world Leading anthropologists attempt to answer these questions identifying and exploring key issues where anthropology connects with the problems of the contemporary scene Women and Irish Society Anne Byrne, Madeleine Leonard, 1997 A Sociological Reader Presents up to date research on the changing role of women in Irish society Includes contributions by 39 sociologists from all over Ireland and offers valuable insights on women's contemporary lives It is the first such sociological reader to cover Ireland both North and South An Anthropology of the European Union Irène Bellier, Thomas M. Wilson, 2000-01-11 One of the problems facing Europe is that the building of institutional Europe and top down efforts to get Europeans to imagine their common identity do not necessarily result in political and cultural unity Anthropologists have been slow to consider the difficulties presented by the expansion of the EU model and its implications for Europe in the 21st Century Representing a new trend in European anthropology this book examines how people adjust to their different experiences of the new Europe The role of culture religion and ideology as well as insiders social and professional practices are all shown to shed light on the cultural logic sustaining the institutions and policies of the European Union On the one hand the activities of the European institutions in Brussels illustrate how people of many different nationalities languages and cultures can live and work together On the other hand the interests of many people at the local regional and national levels are not the same as the Eurocrats Contributors explore the issues of unity and diversity in Europe building through various European institutions images and programmes and their effects on a variety of definitions of identity in such locales as France Denmark the United Kingdom Ireland and Belgium Saothar ,1998

Research Libraries,1991 Borderline Cases Ullrich Kockel,1999 Concentrating on theoretical questions this book summarizes research done between the years 1988 and 1997 It offers an interdisciplinary look at the question of European ethnicity outlining the context of the debate examining case studies and drawing broad conclusions as to the nature of European integration the shifting of cultural horizons and the possibilities for the future Ulster Schleswig Euskadi and Irish migration are specifically considered Distributed by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Women's Working Lives John Kremer,Pamela Montgomery,1993 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 Informal Welfare in Belfast Fred St. Leger,Norman Gillespie,1991 A study of three contrasting Belfast communities which confirms Abram s and Bulmer s contention in Neighbours that long established stable working class communities provide a higher level of informal support than those subject to rapid population turn over An important element in community integration and social support is the presence of a web of grass roots voluntary organizations Housing and planning policy are also seen to contribute to social cohesion in the most stable areas As in most studies women both gave and received considerably more informal care from friends parents or children than from their husbands in contrast the great majority of husbands would turn to their wives if they felt down or had a personal problem In two areas studied closely domiciliary help from social services was greater in the area with less informal care and vice versa however this does not seem to be a result of deliberate policy Current Research in Britain ,1989
