Family Relationships in Later Life Timothy H. Brubaker, 1990 Directed towards researchers and practitioners in family studies and gerontology this completely revised Second Edition of Family Relationships in Later Life provides an innovative new collection of research based descriptions on family relations of older people Each chapter summarizes existing literature on the topic and provides up to date original research Topics addressed include sibling relationships in later life widowhood ethnic differences elder abuse and mistreatment family care and health problems

Social Bonds in Later Life Warren A. Peterson, Jill S. Quadagno, 1985-05-01 As people age they become less mobile and social networking becomes more difficult to maintain This book examines the support networks of the elderly and reaches the conclusion that older people do not engage in relationships on the basis of a one sided dependency rather relationships tend to be reciprocal or interdependent The authors offer a positive and realistic approach to the relationship between the elderly and society

Ageing in Society John Bond, Sheila M. Peace, Freya Dittmann-Kohli, Gerben Westerhof, 2007-02-22 Ageing in Society brings forth exciting new questions fresh perspectives and a necessary critical approach to key issues this is indeed an authoritative introduction The authors not only have made significant contributions to gerontology but offer the reader considerations for what could be not just what is the design of old age in society The book will inform students in ways that so many texts in the area satisfied with comfortable bromides do not Jaber Gubrium Editor of Journal of Aging Studies University of Missouri Columbia This completely revised Third Edition of Ageing in Society presents one of the most comprehensive pictures of ageing today Emphasising the dual processes of ageing societies and the experience of ageing the book offers the reader student or researcher alike cogent discussions of the most up to date perspectives and evidence available The contributors are all leading experts in their fields comprising a range of important disciplines as they apply to ageing Ageing in Society is a cutting edge text on one of the most important subjects facing the modern world a must for all students of ageing Mike Bury Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of London The Third Edition of the comprehensive textbook Ageing in Society extends its scope to include continental Europe allowing broader as well as deeper insights into recent trends in gerontology Gerontologists and practitioners are urged not to stop reading before they have reached the insightful last chapter Ageing into the future Professor Dorly Deeg Editor in Chief European Journal of Ageing The Third Edition of this popular and widely used text provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of ageing exploring the key theories concepts and methods which the behavioural and social sciences contribute to the subject Thoroughly revised and updated Ageing in Society reflects new trends in gerontology incorporating recent developments in theory and research as well as major international and interdisciplinary perspectives A new chapter on cognitive ageing has been added and key themes such as social protection retirement health and illness and cultural images of old age are also critically examined Ageing in Society was developed by the British Society of Gerontology to fulfil the need for an authoritative introduction to social gerontology As such it is an ideal resource for students and lecturers in the social and behavioural sciences as well as for students and practitioners in health and social care

The Effects of the Internet on Social Relationships Conchetta Gallo Ph.D.

LMFT,Joan D. Atwood Ph.D. LMFT LCFW,2011-11-04 Since around the 1970s the world has witnessed a technological revolution equaling no less than a global paradigm shift in the way we communicate in our social relationships The impact of the new technology has impacted every aspect of our lives from early childhood to older ages This technology has revolutionized social communication and brought the world together with a single click This book explores the effects of the internet on our social relationships This impact is tremendous and often individuals seek therapy for the new issues that this type of communication presents whether it be parents who are concerned about their teenagers addiction to texting blogging and posting on Facebook My Space or Twitter or couples whose relationships are threatened by internet infidelity inattentiveness to their partner and or abuse of pornographic websites The chapters contained in this book provide not only important information on these topics across the life span but also provide helpful hints for individuals and mental health practitioners as well
