The Baganda. An Account of Their Native Customs and Beliefs. [With Illustrations.] ,1911 The Archive of a Ugandan Missionary ,2021-12-16 Reverend Apolo Kivebulaya was a clergyman in the Native Anglican Church of Uganda becoming a teacher after his 1895 baptism His writing illustrates a literate Christian identity formed away from centres of power while oral and written accounts about him show the responses of African admirers and how Christianity influenced their societies The Story-Time of the British Empire Sadhana Naithani,2010-05-12 In The Story Time of the British Empire author Sadhana Naithani examines folklore collections compiled by British colonial administrators military men missionaries and women in the British colonies of Africa Asia and Australia between 1860 and 1950 Much of this work was accomplished in the context of colonial relations and done by non folklorists yet these oral narratives and poetic expressions of non Europeans were transcribed translated published and discussed internationally Naithani analyzes the role of folklore scholarship in the construction of colonial cultural politics as well as in the conception of international folklore studies Since most folklore scholarship and cultural history focuses exclusively on specific nations there is little study of cross cultural phenomena about empire and or postcoloniality Naithani argues that connecting cultural histories especially in relation to previously colonized countries is essential to understanding those countries folklore as these folk traditions result from both internal and European influence The author also makes clear the role folklore and its study played in shaping intercultural perceptions that continue to exist in the academic and popular realms today The Story Time of the British Empire is a bold argument for a twenty first century vision of folklore studies that is international in scope and that understands folklore as a transnational entity A Bibliography of the Negro in Africa and America Monroe Nathan Work, 1928 Limited edition facsimile reprint T p verso Generations Past Andrew Burton, Hélène Charton-Bigot, 2010-09-15 Contemporary Africa is demographically characterized above all else by its youthfulness In East Africa the median age of the population is now a striking 17 5 years and more than 65 percent of the population is age 24 or under This situation has attracted growing scholarly attention resulting in an important and rapidly expanding literature on the position of youth in African societies While the scholarship examining the contemporary role of youth in African societies is rich and growing the historical dimension has been largely neglected in the literature thus far Generations Past seeks to address this gap through a wide ranging selection of essays that covers an array of youth related themes in historical perspective Thirteen chapters explore the historical dimensions of youth in nineteenth twentieth and twenty first century Ugandan Tanzanian and Kenyan societies Key themes running through the book include the analytical utility of youth as a social category intergenerational relations and the passage of time youth as a social and political problem sex and gender roles among East African youth and youth as historical agents of change The strong list of contributors includes prominent scholars of the region and the collection encompasses a good geographical spread of all three East African countries The Publisher, 1911 Christianity and the Culture of Relativism in the Anthropologies of Joseph Ratzinger and Stanley Hauerwas Charles Ssenyondo STL STD, 2012-12-17 Joseph Ratzinger rates relativism as the greatest challenge of the Church today What he describes is not a new phenomenon but his theology highlights its origins and magnitude Stanley Hauerwas fights the same battle on the Protestant side This book attempts to discover and streamline their deliberations showing their meeting points and where they differ and remedies they offer to combat the crisis It seeks to argue out the best response to relativism that can most appropriately benefit both Western and African Christendom Despite being a Western phenomenon relativism is no longer an exclusively Western problem It is rather imposing itself as the new world culture depicting all other cultures and perspectives as inferior Ratzinger christened this the Dictatorship of Relativism while Hauerwas calls it Policing of Christian Values While Ratzingers greatest worry is relativisms denial of Truth mostly from outside the ekklesia for Hauerwas relativism is not a force from without of the Church but part and parcel of the peoples modern ways of life in which Christian values are persecuted in the name of peaceful existence Both perspectives point at a crisis of cultures where the past is rejected and the future disconnected from the present which trend inevitably leads to disintegration a leap into the dark While the pre Modern world sought God the Modern world sought knowledge The contemporary world seeks relativism But all is not lost The truth can still be found through the word of God and Christian culture     The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1911     The Baganda The Rev.
