Social Conceptions Of Time:

Social Conceptions of Time G. Crow, S. Heath, 2002-08-05 This book is concerned with the significance of time in work and everyday life The contributors are among the foremost authorities in the field and their up to date contributions consider the changing social meanings that time has in work leisure and everyday routines Together they provide a combination of theoretical and empirically based approaches that reveal the social significance of time in all aspects of everyday lives

Rethinking Marketing Douglas Brownlie, 1999-03-23 This is an important text It brings together critical reflections on the discipline's contribution in terms of theory practice and pedagogy and as such is equally as insightful and challenging as some of its recent predecessors eg Brown et al 1996 Brown and Turley 1997 Brown 1998 The book represents a useful point of departure for those setting off on their own critical journeys and thus it should be included on the reading lists of all those carrying out masters or doctoral research in marketing Journal of Marketing Management This book provides a challenging and stimulating coverage of a broad range of key issues in contemporary marketing such as marketing philosophy marketing ethics the mar

Key Concepts in the Philosophy of Social Research Malcolm Williams, 2016-09-09 This is a splendid book providing a readable and reliable guide to a very large range of topics and literature the author brings together as few of us can the details of research methodology and practice with broader philosophical perspectives and approaches William Outhwaite Emeritus Professor Newcastle University We need researchers who are philosophically informed rather than philosophically obsessed or philosophically oppressed With this book Malcolm Williams strikes the exact balance Ray Pawson Emeritus Professor University of Leeds This book is an ideal introduction for any student or social researcher hoping to better understand the philosophical issues that inform social research Williams is the perfect guide providing short focused introductions to key concepts alongside a persuasive and engaging overview of how we interpret and conduct research The book covers everything from core research methods to ethical concerns and an exploration of the metaphysics of social life with each entry providing Clear definitions Engaging real world examples Up to date suggestions for further reading Informative cross referencing Lists of key thinkers Relevant and authoritative this book is an indispensable introduction to the philosophy of social research

Human and the 4th Dimension (Volume 4) Prof. Dr. Bilal Semih Bozdemir, Human and the 4th Dimension What is the 4th dimension Time as the 4th dimension Space time continuum Einstein's theory of relativity The perception of time Time dilation Time travel Paradoxes of time travel Causality and free will Consciousness and the 4th dimension The arrow of time Entropy and the 4th dimension The thermodynamics of time Quantum mechanics and the 4th dimension Uncertainty and probabilistic time Superposition and parallel timelines Entanglement and non local connections The role of the observer in the 4th dimension Subjective vs objective time Memory and the 4th dimension Perception of the past present and future Aging and the 4th dimension Mortality and the 4th dimension Meditation and the experience of time Altered states of consciousness Transcendence of the 4th dimension Holistic views of time and space The mystical and spiritual perspectives Ancient cultures and the 4th dimension Indigenous time perspectives Shamanism and the 4th dimension Quantum consciousness and the 4th dimension The implications for human experience How the 4th dimension shapes our lives Embracing the 4th dimension Practical applications and technologies Future directions in 4th dimension research Conclusion Appreciating the 4th dimension Interrogating the Perpetrator Cathy J Schlund-Vials, Samuel Martínez, 2018-02-02 Set adjacent to victims and bystanders perpetrators are by no means marginalized figures in human rights scholarship Nevertheless the extent to which the perpetrator is not only socially imagined but also sociologically constructed remains a central concern in studies of state authorized mass violence This interdisciplinary collection of essays builds upon such work by strategically interrogating the terms through which such a figure is read via law society and culture Of particular concern to the contributors to this volume are the ways in which notions of violation and culpability are mediated through less direct convoluted frames of corporatization globalization militarized humanitarianism post conflict truth and justice processes and postcoloniality The chapters variously give scrutiny to historical memory who can voice it when and in what registers question legalism s dominance within human rights and analyse the story telling values invested in the figure of the perpetrator Against the common tendency to view perpetrators as either monsters or puppets driven by evil or controlled by others the chapters in this book are united by the themes of truth s contingency and complex imaginings of perpetrators Even as the truth that emerges from perpetrator testimony may depend on who is listening with what attitude and in what institutional context the book s chapters also affirm that listening to perpetrators may be every bit as productive of human rights insights as it has been to listen to survivors and witnesses This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of Human Rights African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences Gloria Emeagwali, Edward Shizha, 2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology pedagogy physics architecture medicine and metallurgy The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge AIK with an emphasis on the sciences an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents and policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context The Routledge International Handbook of European Social Transformations Peeter Vihalemm, Anu Masso, Signe Opermann, 2017-11-22 This book focuses on social transformations as one of the central topics in the social sciences The study of European social transformations is very valuable in the context of universal discussions within social sciences explaining invariable universal attributes of societies and examining changing attributes The book consists of 20 chapters on European social transformations written from the perspectives of distinguished scholars from such disciplines as economics political science educational science geography media and communication studies public management and administration social psychology and sociology The temporal and spatial range of the book is wide including such global changes as time space compression focusing particularly on change processes in Europe during the last two decades The book consists of four main parts beginning with an overview of the theoretical and methodological approaches and then focusing separately on post communist transformations institutional drivers of social transformations in the European Union and European transformations in the context of global processes The book presents current theoretical empirical and methodological approaches that complement the scientific literature on social transformations This book is both an invaluable resource for scholars and an indispensable teaching tool for use in the classroom and will be of interest to students academics and policy makers studying how this diverse region has changed over recent years
