The Pit Tonight:

A Place to Stand Julie Lindquist, 2002-01-17 Linguists have become increasingly interested in examining how class culture is socially constructed and maintained through spoken language Julie Lindquist's examination of the linguistic ethnography of a working class bar in Chicago is an important and original contribution to the field She examines how regular patrons argue about political issues in order to create a group identity centered around political ideology She also shows how their political arguments are actually a rhetorical genre one which creates a delicate balance between group solidarity and individual identity as well as a tenuous and ambivalent sense of class identity

The Boys from North Dakota Robert Battistuzzi, 2013-04 It was prom night for the class of 65 in Wattinger North Dakota In just a few days the Road Demons made up of Gerry Randy Art and Bobby would be heading for the west coast to make big money as lumberjacks and leave a trail of broken hearts This would be their last trip together before working towards their careers perhaps moving to different cities However for Bobby this trip is not a certainty Things were much more simple for the others He was the only one saving money for college and his strict father did not approve of the trip especially with his friends whom he had felt were wasting their lives spending too much money on their cars Bobby was faced with the dilemma of trying to please his father whose old fashioned ideals were in conflict with the American way of life or going on this last trip with his friends Would he show up with the others when it was time to leave If he did go on the trip what would happen if he returned with no money

Alex and the Kitten Monster Richard Wolters, 2000-07-19 Alex and his friends are told a creepy story that makes no sense but scares the pants off them What apparently started with the malicious drowning of a neighbor's kitten has grown into a spine tingling tale of the kitten's survival and the horror of it growing into a monster cat that lives in the swampy waters of the local sandpit However Alex's friends and his parents don't believe this horrifying story is true Alex on the other hand figure out there really is a monster But no one believes him even after the mysterious disappearance of a dog and one of the local boys Not realizing that he could become the monster's next meal Alex goes to the sandpit at night with nothing more than his camera He is determined to get a picture of the kitten monster to prove that he is right He ends up riding a roller coaster of mystery suspense and terror as Alex faces the most horrifying experience of his young life

Astley Green Colliery Dave Lane & Red Rose Steam Society, 2008-08-01 Very little now remains of the Manchester coalfield in the North West UK The engineering excellence the genius of the coal mining industry the toil and the hardships of the mining communities have long since passed into memory This publication records the history of one such mining community Astley Green Colliery situated between Leigh and Manchester As well as the history of the colliery it also describes the efforts of many who seek to preserve remains of what is now left of the colliery the headgear the engine house and the magnificent engine contained within it ALL profits from this publication go directly to the Red Rose Steam Society who strive to preserve the history and heritage of our coal mining history

A Taste of Fame (The Potluck Catering Club Book #2) Linda

Evans Shepherd, Eva Marie Everson, 2009-09-01 The women of the Potluck Catering Club have a growing business They even became the subject of a budding filmmaker s class project Problem is they didn t read the fine print when they signed off on his documentary When he enters the club in the reality show Great Party Showdown the ladies of Summit View Colorado head to the Big Apple for the unexpected adventure of their lives Between navigating New York City dealing with other cutthroat contestants and trying to maintain their close friendship in the high stress world of reality TV the Potluck women must keep their eyes on the prize a cool million dollars and work together if they re going to make it back to Colorado in one piece A Taste of Fame serves up the perfect blend of humor misadventure and mouth watering recipes Fans new and old will love this exciting trip into the wild world of competitive cooking

Pitmatic Bill Griffiths, 2007 This book holds a wonderful collection of mining terms It brings together the words spoken by miners of the North East pits how these words relate to the wider language of the region and its literature of story and song

Ruin Memories Bjørnar Olsen, Dóra Pétursdóttir, 2014-04-24 Since the nineteenth century mass production consumerism and cycles of material replacement have accelerated increasingly larger amounts of things are increasingly victimized rapidly and made redundant At the same time processes of destruction have immensely intensified although largely overlooked when compared to the research and social significance devoted to consumption and production The outcome is a ruin landscape of derelict factories closed shopping malls overgrown bunkers and redundant mining towns a ghostly world of decaying modern debris normally omitted from academic concerns and conventional histories The archaeology of the recent or contemporary past has grown fast during the last decade This development has been concurrent with a broader popular artistic and scholarly interest in modern ruins in general Ruin Memories explores how the ruins of modernity are conceived and assigned cultural value in contemporary academic and public discourses reassesses the cultural and historical value of modern ruins and suggests possible means for reaffirming their cultural and historic significance Crucial for this reassessment is a concern with decay and ruination and with the role things play in expressing the neglected unsuccessful and ineffable Abandonment and ruination is usually understood negatively through the tropes of loss and deprivation things are degraded and humiliated while the information knowledge and memory embedded in them become lost along the way Without even ignoring its many negative and traumatizing aspects a main question addressed in this book is whether ruination also can be seen as an act of disclosure If ruination disturbs the routinized and ready to hand to what extent can it also be seen as a recovery of memory as exposing meanings and presences that perhaps are only possible to grasp at second hand when no longer immersed in their withdrawn and useful reality Anybody interested in the archaeology of the contemporary past will find Ruin Memories an essential guide to the very latest theoretical research in this emerging field of archaeological thought
